REVEALED! First at 9 big shows for

1 Turn Up Charlie Netflix

Idris Elba is miles away from the murky world of Luther in this eight-part comedy, as he plays a struggling DJ and eternal bachelor.

It follows Idris' character Charlie, who reluctantly becomes a 'manny' to his famous best friend's problem child daughter Gabby (Frankie Herve). It's set to hit our screens in March.

5 Dublin Murders BBC1

Here's the first photo of Killian Scott (Strike) and Sarah Greene (Penny Dreadful) as detectives Rob Reilly and Cassie Maddox in this new crime thriller.

Inspired by Tana French's best-selling Dublin Murder Squad novels, the eight-parter has been written by Sarah Phelps (The ABC Murders). Set during the millennium's Celtic Tiger financial boom, the series sees charismatic Rob and Cassie investigating two seemingly unrelated murders...

2 Urban Myths Sky Arts

We love this snap of Stephen Mangan (far right) as Charles Dickens in the return of this anthology series.

This installment, Bleak House Guest, also stars Monica Dolan and Ian Hart. It joins the previously announced Mick and Margaret, which charts Princess Margaret's 30-year friendship with Mick Jagger, with more episodes for series three due to be revealed later this year.

3 Catch-22 C4

Here is your first look at this adaptation of Joseph Heller's classic anti-war novel, directed by and starring George Clooney.

The six-part mini-series tells the story of artful dodger Yossarian (played by Girls star Christopher Abbott), a US Air Force bombardier in World War Two, who is furious because thousands of people he has never met are trying to kill him. George, sporting a moustache, plays Scheisskopf, an Air Force Lieutenant.

6 MotherFatherSon BBC2

Check out the first picture of Sarah Lancashire (Last Tango in Halifax, Happy Valley) in this eight-part drama about a self-made billionaire media tycoon, played by Hollywood star Richard Gere.

Sarah plays the part of businesswoman-turned MP Angela Howard, now Leader of the Opposition.

look 2019

4 Years & Years BBC1

This is the glorious first photo of two-time Oscar winner Emma Thompson in this much-anticipated futuristic drama, written by Russell T Davies.

The six-part saga follows the lives of a single family over 15 years in a Britain rocked by unstable political, economic and technological advances. Emma plays Vivienne Rook, an outspoken celebrity-turned-political figure, whose controversial opinions divide the nation. The impressive cast list also includes Anne Reid, Russell Tovey, Jessica Hynes and Rory Kinnear.

7 Catherine the Great Sky Atlantic

Ahead of its premiere later this year, Sky has released another new image of Helen Mirren as Russian Empress Catherine the Great with her long-standing lover Grigory Potemkin, played by Australian actor Jason Clarke.

Set against the lavish backdrop of the 18th-century Russian court, the four-parter charts the latter years of Catherine's reign.

8 Traitors C4

This is the first snap of Keeley Hawes in the six-part thriller (that was called Jerusalem).

Set in 1945 London, the story follows Feef (Clique's Emma Appleton), who is seduced by a rogue American spy into spying on her own country in a bid to uncover a Russian agent in the heart of the British Government. Keeley plays Priscilla, Feef's demanding boss.

9 The Luminaries BBC2

Check out this behind-the-scenes snap as filming gets underway for Eleanor Catton's six-part adaptation of her 2013 novel.

Set in the 1860s, it follows Anna Wetherell (Eve Hewson) who sails from Britain to New Zealand to begin a new life. When she meets Emery Staines (Himesh Patel), it's the start of an epic story of love, murder and revenge.

WHAT'S NEXT FOR...

DAVID JASON

The actor will reprise his role as grocer Granville, as Arkwright's corner shop opens its doors for a sixth series of BBC1's hit show Still Open All Hours.

JAMES NORTON

Alongside Emilia Fox, the actor will head an all-star cast for BBC1's six-part drama The Trial of Christine Keeler, based on the Profumo affair.

JESSIE J

Previously a mentor on The Voice UK on BBC1, the singer has joined The Voice Kids UK on ITV as a new coach, alongside regulars will.i.am, Danny Jones and Pixie Lott.

SEAN BEAN

The Broken star has joined the cast of BBC1's World On Fire, following the first year of War World Two. Helen Hunt and Lesley Manville were previously announced.

CLAES BANG

The Danish actor (Borgen) will play Dracula in Mark Gatiss and Steven Moffat's new BBC1 drama, inspired by Bram Stoker's classic novel. Filming begins this year for the three-parter.

Stars Katie McGlynn and Rob Mallard on Sinead and Daniel's traumatic start to parenthood...

SOAP

Coronation Street

MON, WED, FRI / ITV / 7.30PM & 8.30PM

Coronation Street welcomed its 45th baby to the cobbles last week, when Sinead and Daniel Osbourne's son, Bertie, was born.

But the proud parents were in no mood to party. Sinead's cancer had grown, and she was forced to have a caesarean section in order to start radiotherapy. Bertie was then delivered three months premature, and subsequently diagnosed with a bowel problem.

TVTimes chats to Katie McGlynn and Rob Mallard to find out more about the bittersweet story...

Bertie's birth was traumatic. How have Sinead and Daniel been affected by that?

Katie: It's absolute heartbreak for Sinead, because she passed out after the C-section, and when she came round, she felt like the baby had been ripped away from her. I spoke to a lady who had breast cancer when she gave birth and the same thing happened to her, so that helped me with the scenes.

Rob: It's overwhelming for Daniel, and he doesn't know who to worry about most – the baby, Sinead, or himself. He keeps thinking, 'If something happens to both or either of them, how will I cope?'

How was it filming those scenes?

Katie: We were both pretty exhausted, but you just try to keep your energy up. I got through a lot of tea and coffee, and treated myself to the odd cake.

Rob: From my side, there was trepidation, anxiety and relief to play. Not to disparage Katie, but she just had to lie there!

Bertie remains in an incubator this week. How do Sinead and Daniel cope?

Katie: It's torture for Sinead. There's a moment where she tries to put her hand in and the alarm goes off – she just panics.

Rob: It's almost as if there is a window on Sinead's belly. The baby's gone from one incubator to another.

The couple named their son Bertie. Do you approve?

Katie: Yeah, I think it's cute! When we first found out, I thought it was going to be quite funny doing serious scenes and having to say 'Bertie' in my Rochdale accent.

Rob: I really do! I'm not sure where it came from, although I suggested Albert because it's Daniel's middle name, and Ken's uncle was Albert.

What kind of parents do you think Daniel and Sinead will be?

Katie: I think Sinead will be a very good mum, and because she's a bit of a hippy, she'll be fun and kooky. She'll make his clothes because they don't have much money and she's handy with a needle and thread.

Rob: Daniel will be a natural, because he had to father himself from the age of 14. A lot of the things I do by instinct with my own nieces and nephews are the things my grandad did with me, and I think Daniel will want to do things with Bertie that Ken wants to do with him, like the academic stuff.

“I hope Sinead survives because she's such a lovely character”

KATIE MCGLYNN

Touching: A heartbroken Sinead reaches out to Bertie as Daniel looks on

How is it working with a baby?

Katie: Because Bertie is premature, we're still using a doll. To be fair, they look pretty good.

Rob: There's a hand pump at the back, so we'd be at the incubator, looking lovingly at this jelly baby, and a nurse would be crouching down, pumping this thing to make its stomach rise.

Are you looking forward to working with the real thing?

Katie: I'm nervous. I don't like having the responsibility of having someone else's child. I'm scared that I'll break them!

Rob: I'm really looking forward to it – I've been broody for years!

Are you missing wearing the prosthetic bump, Katie?

Katie: I am! It kept my belly warm, and hid a multitude of sins, so I could eat what I wanted. But now I'm feeling podgy after Christmas, I've got nowhere to hide! On the plus side, it's easier to go to the loo!

“I don't think Daniel would cope without Sinead”

ROB MALLARD

Corrie producer Iain MacLeod says he hasn't decided if Sinead will survive her cancer. Does it feel odd to not know her fate?

Katie: I guess so, but it's a more honest way to play it, because in real life you don't know. For Sinead's sake, I hope she survives because she's such a lovely character.

If the worst did happen to Sinead, how would Daniel cope?

Rob: Initially, I don't think he would cope. Without Sinead, raising a family isn't something he'd want to do. I think that he would run away from his responsibility and have to be forced to step up.

Tired, Heavy Legs? Puffy Ankles?

Actively increase circulation to reduce these symptoms with the REVITIVE Circulation Booster®

More than a million people are now dedicated to the REVITIVE Circulation Booster®, which is high-tech yet needs no specialist operation.

REVITIVE is being shown to help with symptoms such as the feeling of tired legs and puffy ankles - as well as improving our feeling of health generally. The circular footrest is a dynamic hub for electrical muscle stimulation (EMS) technology, sending electrical pulses gently up through the feet and into the body.

Few people realise it but the calves act as our 'second heart', pumping blood up from the body's farthest reaches back to the heart. It's no secret that things tend to slow through ageing or being less active. After we've been on our feet for a while, at best many of us suffer from symptoms where we find our legs feeling tired and ankles puffy.

Yet sufferers are discovering that is a thing of the past thanks to the REVITIVE Circulation Booster®, a drug-free, therapy device which actively increases circulation. It should be used from just 30 minutes daily and it won't interfere with any existing medication.

REVITIVE can weave its magic while you sit back in your armchair and watch TV thanks to its easy operation, and is the culmination of a century of research.

EASY TO USE – hydrate yourself & apply FREE moisturiser to feet, increase intensity until your calf muscles contract, sit back, relax & let REVITIVE do the rest.

EFFECTIVE – REVITIVE creates Electrical Muscle Stimulation (EMS) which sends gentle electrical pulses up through the feet which contracts the calf muscles to get your leg muscles pumping & may help provide relief from the feeling of tired legs and puffy feet and ankles, while you relax.

CLINICAL TRIALS – Imperial College London's vascular surgery department at Charing Cross Hospital London has conducted extensive clinical studies and advocate its use.

DRUG-FREE – REVITIVE is a class IIa medical device offering a drug-free solution, plus entitling you to claim back the VAT* if you suffer from a long-term illness - call for further details.

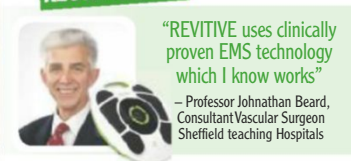

RECOMMENDED by the England Cricket Legend and Charity Walker:

Death at the factory!

A resident will lose their life when the roof collapses...

Carla's world will come crashing down, quite literally, when the roof of Underworld collapses, causing the death of a much-loved resident. Worse still, it will later transpire the tragedy is no accident.

The destruction has been deliberately caused by one of Carla's enemies.

'Carla wants to turn the factory into a world-beating business, but that leads to her making mistakes,' explains Coronation Street producer Iain MacLeod. 'She ends up getting on the wrong side of a lot of people, and by the time of the collapse, many of them wish her ill.'

The identity of the victim is being kept under wraps, but we're promised there won't be a dry eye in the house as he or she meets their maker. The name of the saboteur is also top secret... for now.

'It's a whodunnit without a murder,' Iain adds. 'Instead, it's gross negligence manslaughter. That doesn't sound as sexy, but it'll be every bit as intriguing.'

We'll discover exactly who's responsible in a special stand-alone episode focusing

Devastated: Carla and factory staff on Carla's mental health, which goes downhill in the wake of the resident's shock death.

'I would hesitate to put a diagnosis on what is affecting Carla,' Iain tells us. 'But the Underworld factory roof collapse has lots of offshoots that give our amazing cast a chance to show off their acting chops.'

ALSO COMING UP...

Peter's sailing dreams go up in smoke. But who is responsible for torching his boat, and will anyone be hurt?

As Rana and Kate prepare for their wedding, a face from Kate's past causes chaos...

Jenny and Johnny's court date arrives, following the hit-and-run on Liz. Will the troubled couple be banged up?

The Kabin gets a new owner, but who will be replacing Norris at the helm?

Killer returns...

Clayton's behaviour causes a huge rift between Shona and David

Shona's son, Clayton, will be rearing his ugly head again in the coming weeks, for a gritty storyline which is set to put Shona's relationship with David to the ultimate test.

The twisted brute tries to embroil his mum in a plot to smuggle drugs into prison, where he is banged up for murdering David's wife, Kylie.

'It throws into question David and Shona's relationship,' says Corrie boss Iain MacLeod, 'and

Twisted: Clayton is plotting in jail

is the biggest challenge to them since the Josh stuff.'

As Corrie fans will know, David ended his romance with Shona last year when he was raped by mechanic Josh. They reunited later, after David confided in his girlfriend about his ordeal.

'The idea that David is in love with the mother of the boy who killed the love of his life is such a ripe area for us to explore,' Iain adds, 'so we're jumping in with both feet.'

NEW FACTUAL

Danny Dyer's Right Royal Family

WED / BBC1 / 9PM (SCOT, 10.45PM)

Danny Dyer saunters into a meeting room during a break from filming EastEnders at Elstree Studios in Hertfordshire and slumps down in a comfortable chair.

He's still wearing one of Mick Carter's shirts, but we're not here to discuss his role as the Queen Vic landlord – for which he was recently voted TV Times readers' Favourite Soap Star – but his new history series. Yes, really!

Fans of genealogy show Who Do You Think You Are? will remember that Danny got the surprise of his life in 2016 when he discovered he was related to two kings – William the Conqueror and Edward III – as well as having blood ties to Henry VIII's advisor Thomas Cromwell. But that was only the start of the story...

'I remember sitting there in Westminster Abbey and

'It's a rags-to-

EastEnders star Danny Dyer on discovering more about his royal roots for a new history series...

The Carters: Albert Square's Mick and Linda (Kellie Bright)

hearing that Edward III was my 26 times great-grandfather,' says Danny. 'As I'm trying to digest it, the credits roll, so the programme ended just as it started to get good!'

Now in two-part BBC1 series Danny Dyer's Right Royal Family, the proud Londoner will find out how far back his royal bloodline goes and how his regal relatives lived. Danny, 41, tells us more...

Has your life changed since you discovered your royal roots?

It hasn't changed at all. But it did fill some sort of void. I had always felt a bit of emptiness about why I am the way I am and why I'm in the position I'm in. I didn't train as an actor and I've come from a really working-class environment and I found myself all of a sudden in a position of power and responsibility,

Were you surprised by how far back your family tree went?

Yeah, that was a shock. My oldest known relative was Rollo the Viking, who came from Scandinavia to become the first Lord of Normandy in the 900s. We couldn't go back any further than that because no one knows who his mum and dad were. But he must have been some geezer, because he rose from nothing to the top of Viking society, which wasn't easy because they were a tough mob!

Did you enjoy living as Rollo would have done when you travelled to the Viking village in Sweden?

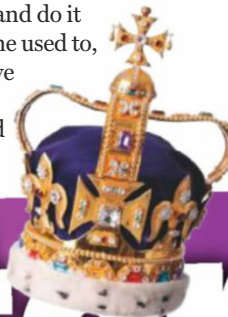

I didn't mind sailing about on the longboat and learning to scrap like a Viking, but I wasn't a big fan of their food. I had to eat a sheep's tongue straight from the skull,

Hopefully, you'll learn more from my show than you would from a David Starkey series like my ancestors. That was a really nice touch from the producers, although I realised later on that they had an ulterior motive...

Tell us more!

Well, it turns out I'm also related to Louis IX, the 13th-century French king. He was a great man and a saint, which I found fascinating. He was all about helping people, especially the poor, but he was very religious and didn't like blasphemy. So the coins were for a swear box, which I had to use while I was walking in Paris. I had to follow in his footsteps and do it barefoot like he used to, so I didn't have much dosh left by the end of the day!

Were you pleased to get your family involved in the second episode?

Yeah, that was great, because I drive the kids mad talking about it and they're not that interested, so it was good to get them involved. My wife enjoys it all a bit more, although I do have to remind her that she only married into it – a bit like Princess Di – and she's not real royalty. We went to Helmingham Hall in Suffolk, which would have been mine if my ancestors hadn't messed it up. One side of the family kept that gaff and my side ended up on a council estate in Canning Town. This is what you could have had!

What else are you up to in 2019?

I'm doing a Pinter play with Martin Freeman very soon, which I'm excited about, because he's a top geezer and a brilliant actor. Harold Pinter was a very important part of my life and he's been gone for 10 years, so my way of being connected to him again is to do some of his work. We're doing a two-handed piece called The Dumb Waiter, which is one of his best plays. It's full-on for me at the moment and I'm very grateful for everything I've got. I'm in a good place!

riches story!

so to find out about my ancestors... it's a rags-to-riches story.

What can you tell us about this new series?

Ever since I was told I had royal heritage, I've been dying to find out more. When you have a family tree like mine, you have to go and explore it. I want to indulge in it, taste it and find out what their lives were actually like. It's a history show that's told through my eyes, so I'm hoping it reaches a lot of people. Hopefully, you'll learn a lot more from one of my shows than you would from a David Starkey series. He's a clever bloke, but he's very boring!

which wasn't great. But you have to commit to these things otherwise there's no point. I've changed a bit as I've got older and I wanted to show a different side to me. I didn't want to take myself too seriously and hopefully that comes across.

What other moments stood out for you in the series?

I got to ride a horse for the first time ever, just like another of my royal ancestors, William the Conqueror. We did a bit of jousting and then we went hunting in the forest and I wasn't bad with a bow and arrow. One of my favourite bits was getting a bag of coins with my face on, just

'I'M AN EMBARRASSING COUSIN!'

He might be related to Her Majesty The Queen, but Danny wasn't invited to Prince Harry and Meghan Markle's wedding last year!

'I haven't heard anything from the Royal Family,' he says. 'I'm clearly an embarrassing cousin they've got but don't want to acknowledge. It would be nice if they did want to acknowledge it. Maybe one day. I heard the Queen is a fan of EastEnders and that she always watches the Christmas special, which is nice, I suppose!'

Distant relatives: The Royal Family

'I want Trixie to be a doctor!'

Star Helen George on why she's pleased super-efficient nurse Trixie's career is on the up in Call the Midwife...

DRAMA

Call the Midwife

SUNDAY / BBC1 / 8PM

Oh Trixie, we're so glad to have you back! When the caring midwife with the cut-glass accent and glamorous wardrobe swapped Poplar for Portofino in the last series of Call the Midwife as she struggled with alcoholism, she left a huge gap both at Nonnatus House and on our screens.

Thankfully, since Trixie's welcome return at Christmas – when star Helen George reprised the role after her maternity leave – she has been back to her usual efficient self and firing on all cylinders.

This week, her medical prowess proves vital when complications arise as anaemic Ghanaian Flora Aidoo (Jessica Kennedy) gives birth and Trixie suspects that something is amiss with her family's health.

Here, Helen, 34, tells TV Times why she's thrilled at Trixie's career development and how becoming a mother has helped her on set...

Trixie helps to diagnose what's wrong with the Aidooos. Are you enjoying seeing her experience come to the fore?

Yes, she's delving deeper into the medical profession. Trixie takes a more serious role this series. She's studying and bettering herself. It's exciting watching her come up through the ranks and hopefully going further in her career at a time when women weren't pushed. You see that juxtaposition of the fun, bubbly blonde from the first series and how far she's come academically. She's facing her demons and instead of allowing them to overpower her, she learns to fly above them.

Do you have much of a say in how Trixie's character develops?

You have thoughts about what your character could do and I meet the producers each series and they tell me what's planned. I normally say, 'Brilliant!' because it's always a great idea. Sometimes there are nice surprises and you think, 'Wow, I didn't know that was going to happen.' I like the way it's going for Trixie at the moment. I want her to become a doctor. Whether that will happen, I don't know. But it's nice for her to evolve and, as she gets more mature, not just become a wife or a girlfriend. If she were to marry, it'd be boring for her. She'd have to leave Nonnatus House, which is her home and her life. I don't want her to stop working because she's so good at her job.

You've worked on Call the Midwife for eight years now. Are you still just as fascinated by the more medical side of the scripts?

Yes, after doing it for this long, it's the medical challenges I find exciting. The boring births are the ones where it pops out after a few contractions! I like a breech or a C-section – it's more entertaining to film! For those scenes, you really have to know your lines and focus. You don't have time to be emotional about things.

You took a break last series to welcome your baby daughter Wren, who was born in September 2017. How does it feel to be back?

It was strange having some episodes off and I really missed everybody, so it's nice to come back. It was weird though, knowing that Charlotte [Ritchie, who left last series as tragic nurse Barbara Hereward] and Jack [Helen's real-life partner Jack Ashton, who played vicar Tom Hereward and also left the show last year] wouldn't be here. Jack has done a play since and is busy at home with the baby. We chat about the show but I don't like rehearsing and line-learning with him. It's weird now he's off the show!

Does it feel different being in Call the Midwife now you're a mum?

Filming while pregnant was knacker, so it's been easier this time – I don't have swollen feet, so my shoes fit. But it's hard watching it and seeing how big my eye bags are this year! Doing the birth scenes now is different, too. Before, I was pragmatic; I'd take the babies for a scene, then hand them back. Now I'm more aware of the real mothers' worries. Our on-set midwife Terri Coates says, 'You can tell you're a mum now!' I'm discovering what it's like being a working mum, too. It's hard, but I'm excited I've got a daughter who's seeing her mum working. It's tough, but it's what mums do, right? I'm lucky to be able to do it.

Have you brought Wren on set to meet the cast and crew?

Yes, it was nice for everyone to see her. But she hasn't been cast in the show – she's too big to be an extra now. Maybe she will in the future. But I'd like her to be a lawyer or a doctor!

Early days: Helen as Trixie in 2012

I like a breech or a C-section – it's more entertaining to film!

'I'M NEVER RECOGNISED!'

Leonie Elliott on Lucille's latest patient and why Call the Midwife fans don't spot her in the street...

Trixie's not the only Nonnatus House midwife facing a challenge this week. Lucille (Leonie Elliott) becomes concerned about determined pensioner Clarice Millgrove (One Foot in the Grave's Annette Crosbie), who's struggling to cope in her cluttered home. Here, Leonie, 30, tells us more...

What's in store for Lucille this episode?

It's a brilliant storyline and I loved working with Annette Crosbie. Her character doesn't go out much, she's a hoarder and Lucille's treating her leg ulcers. Lucille wins her over quickly but she doesn't find out until the end why Clarice is like this and when it comes out, it stirs the activist in Lucille...

Does Lucille feel more at home in Poplar now?

Life's full of ups and downs, so it's not going to be smooth sailing after a year of being in East London. But so far, so good. She's settled in nicely. We saw her finding her own church in the last series and her singing there was one of my favourite scenes. It mirrored my family's experience of being accepted in their local area. It's great Lucille's got a home away from home at church and is involved with other community events.

And have you settled into the show?

Yes, it feels very different this time. I felt like the new girl at school last year. I'm more comfortable this series. It's nerve-racking being in something like this, but everyone looked after me and they were all so lovely and welcoming.

Are you recognised in the street now?

No, it's really nice! Even if my family show off and say, 'She's Lucille in Call the Midwife,' people go, 'Wow!' Because my hair and accent are different, they still don't believe it. My family are very proud of me, though – they really love the show.

My magic moments

Vera star and keen photographer Kenny Doughty shares his favourite behind-the-scenes snaps of filming for the ITV drama

DRAMA

Vera

SUNDAY / ITV / 8.10PM

Northumberland, with its wonderful windswept moors, dramatic coastline and picturesque fishing villages, has always provided a stunning backdrop for ITV's hit crime drama Vera.

So it's no wonder actor and keen photographer Kenny Doughty, who joined the cast as DS Aiden Healy in 2015, loves taking pictures whenever there's a spare moment during filming on location.

'The quality of mobile phones these days makes it really easy,' explains Kenny, 43, who spends six months of the year filming with Brenda Blethyn – otherwise known as DCI Vera Stanhope – who has become a close friend in real life. 'I love capturing those behind-the-scenes moments and have now built up quite a collection at home.'

Vera returned for a ninth series last week, and in this Sunday's story, Cuckoo, Aiden and Vera investigate a reformed drug dealer (played by The Syndicate's Mark Addy) who's a suspect in a murder case.

Here, Kenny exclusively shares with TVTimes some of the snaps he took backstage while filming this episode, as well as his favourites from across the four-part series...

GETTING THE GIGGLES

'I love this photo because it sums up Brenda and me perfectly – we have so many laughs together, and we're practically bent double here,' says Kenny of this snap, taken during episode two. 'We were in Amble, just north of Newcastle. Someone had asked us to step backwards while we were filming and one of us had nearly gone flying into the water! We got the giggles for about 20 minutes.'

MY BRILLIANT FRIEND

'It was a hot day and Brenda and I found a little bench where we could sit between takes,' remembers Kenny. 'It was our little spot of shade and coolness. What you can't see is all the camera equipment and clobber that's surrounding us. I particularly like this picture because there's a nice, easy concentration about it. And that's my relationship with Brenda - we are either laughing together or are extremely relaxed in each other's company.'

WONDERFUL WHITLEY BAY

'I took this at sunset at Whitley Bay,' says Kenny. 'You can see the first assistant director and camera crew getting ready before Vera and Aiden come into the scene. We were filming episode four, called

The Seagull, and had about an hour to film before the sun went completely. Whitley Bay is where Ann Cleaves [the creator of Vera] lives. The coastline is divine, from South Shields all the way up to Tynemouth.'

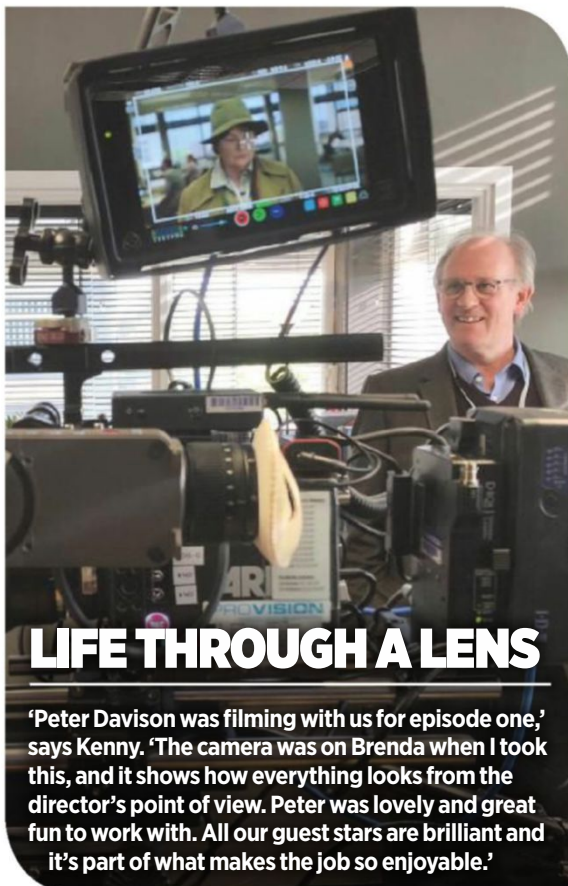

FLOSS LIKE A BOSS!

'This is Brenda flossing!' says Kenny. 'We were filming episode one on an estate in Newcastle, school had just finished for the day and all these kids came to watch us. They were shouting, "Can you floss, Vera?" They showed Brenda what to do and she picked it up right away.'

'SEAGULL MAYHEM'

'This was the day of seagull mayhem!' recalls Kenny of this shot, taken during episode two. 'The director wanted them in the background and our art director had the job of throwing chips to keep them flying around. You can see Brenda about to walk into the scene, then I come in later with important information. However, the seagulls decided to do a Dam Busters on me - I was dive-bombed from every angle! All I could hear was swooshing and splatting as they did their business. I was so desperate to hear the word "Cut"!'

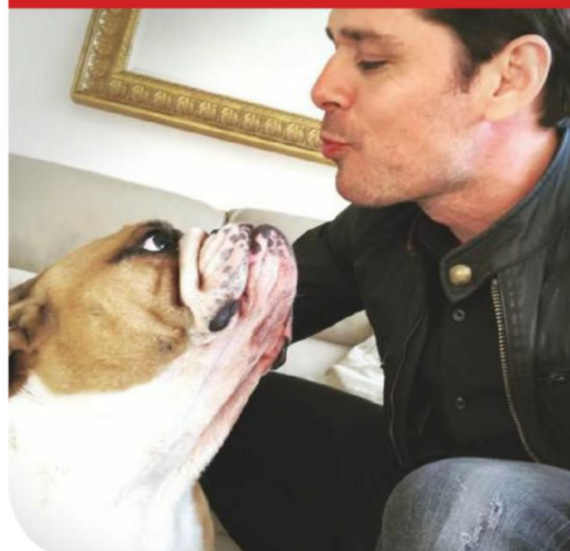

LIFE THROUGH A LENS

'Peter Davison was filming with us for episode one,' says Kenny. 'The camera was on Brenda when I took this, and it shows how everything looks from the director's point of view. Peter was lovely and great fun to work with. All our guest stars are brilliant and it's part of what makes the job so enjoyable.'

MY MATE FRANKIE

'I adore animals and this lovely chap is Frankie, who belonged to the owner of a house we were using for episode four,' smiles Kenny. 'Poor old Frankie had to be kept out of the way while filming was going on, but I made friends with him, and he and I hung out while the crew were setting up. I'd love a dog of my own, but acting is just too unreliable - you never know when you're going to be at home.'

Everybody LOVES Leonard!

Grantchester's Al Weaver on curate Leonard's attempts at crime-fighting, and heartbreak ahead...

DRAMA

Grantchester

FRIDAY / ITV / 9PM

“I think it's really brave – the show is very progressive”

Al Weaver reveals how Leonard fares as a sleuth and how he felt when he heard co-star James Norton was leaving the show...

One of the many joys of watching Grantchester

has been the blooming of unassuming curate Leonard Finch.

Leonard has been a hit with fans since the ITV drama began in 2014, and he has gone from amusing sidekick to carrying some of the show's most powerful storylines. We've watched him come to terms with being gay in a repressed society, and grow in confidence as he becomes the man he's meant to be.

This week, Leonard's on a new mission, as Geordie (Robson Green) seeks help on a tricky case.

Grabbing the opportunity, Leonard fancies himself as a genius detective and hilarity ensues. But the laughter is about to come to an abrupt halt, as the community's quiet acceptance of his sexuality is under threat...

Here, in an exclusive interview with TV Times, actor

Is Leonard excited to play policeman on this case?

Well, it's exactly what you would imagine it might be like if Leonard tried to solve a crime! Geordie's a bit lost with this case; he has to go to a gay bar during the investigation and thinks Leonard knows about these matters, so he takes me along with him as his partner in crime. Leonard is nervous. He tries his best and it's very funny. He's quite jealous of the new vicar, Will [Tom Brittney], and it annoys him when he starts helping Geordie instead.

Were you thrilled when you heard Leonard would be sleuthing?

I was so happy! Robson and I had a real blast, although we filmed that episode during a heatwave in heavy woollen suits. The vicarage was about 100 degrees – we were all drinking rehydrating solutions and nearly fainting. It would have been hilarious if Leonard could have gone on a couple more cases, but he's got so much on his plate – lots of fetes to organise!

But the levity is followed by sadness, as Mrs Chapman (Tessa Peake-Jones) starts to realise the truth about Leonard's relationship with Daniel. She doesn't react well, does she?

It all comes to a head at the end of this episode, and it sparks a split

On the beat:
Leonard joins
Geordie on a case

New era: Leonard with vicar Will between Leonard and Mrs C. The rest of the series sees them trying to come to a peace with each other, about her finding acceptance and his stubbornness. It's all very strained and he must decide what he values more – friendship, love or God? It's a really sad situation for him.

Are you proud of the way the show has dealt with Leonard's sexuality?

I think it's really brave what they've done with this storyline – the show is very progressive and has pushed it from the start. You've got these very strong characters living at a time when they're repressed and they're really pushing through those boundaries. It's weird because he's such a scatty character, but he's also a very determined person. His life begins to crumble away this series, so he's got to find the strength inside to really stay true to himself.

Were you worried when you heard that James Norton (AKA vicar Sidney Chambers) was leaving the show?

It's always scary when someone leaves. James' profile is obviously huge now, so we're losing our iconic figure on the show, and our sex symbol. But luckily the writers have coped so well. The characters don't accept Will straight away – we're wary of him – and as we grow to love and accept him, hopefully the audience will, too. We're definitely not saying, 'This is the new hero, so you must love him immediately!'

We really enjoyed watching you in recent BBC1 drama Press, playing an investigative journalist. Will we see a second series at some point?

I don't know. We are still waiting to hear if it's happening. I think it was written as a potential returner, but nothing is guaranteed. I've had more reaction for that show than anything else; the subject matter is so intriguing, and there are endless possibilities of what you can do with the series.

And it was nice to put some modern clothes on for that job! So I hope it comes back. Watch this space...

Investigating: AI as reporter James in Press

Back to Grantchester for a very important final question, AI... Will Leonard look after Sidney's dog, Dickens, when he leaves?

Yes, Leonard and Will adopt Dickens – he's part of the house! I'm a cat person, though. I have a cat called Carlos and a rabbit called David Bowie, who we adopted from a friend. I'd never had a pet in my life until recently and I love Carlos. He's amazing! But rabbits don't really give much back; they're weird creatures. It's torture trying to get him back in the hutch at night. I spend every evening running round the garden trying to catch David Bowie!

5 steps to Paradise

Death in Paradise's new recruit Shyko Amos on her big TV break...

DRAMA

Death in Paradise

THURSDAY / BBC1 / 9PM

Talk about rookie errors! Last week we finally met Dwayne's replacement, new girl

Ruby Patterson, played by Shyko Amos, and her cop partner JP (Tobi Bakare) was dismayed to learn she has no formal training. She got the job because she's the Commissioner's niece... and her ineptitude was obvious!

On set on the gorgeous Caribbean islands of Guadeloupe, Shyko tells TVTimes the five things we need to know about Ruby...

3 WHEELY SCARY!

The scariest thing about the role was driving.

'I passed my test years ago but I've never really driven,' she says. 'The only way to get round Guadeloupe is by car. The roads aren't like the ones at home – people take corners at 70mph. I can't do that in my car. I'm not Lewis Hamilton!'

4 FAMILY OF FANS

This is Shyko's first big TV role and her family are over the moon. 'They're all superfans of the show,' she tells us. 'Mum even told me what to do in the audition! We couldn't stop screaming when I got the job.'

5 EXTRA AMBITION

Shyko's planning on taking her mum and two aunts on to the set. 'I had to warn the cast as they're such big fans!' she laughs. 'Hopefully they can be extras in Catherine's Bar...'

1 NEPOTISM ALERT!

Ruby has no policing experience, but her uncle, the Commissioner (Don Warrington), forced DI Jack Mooney (Ardal O'Hanlon) to give her a job. And while JP softens towards her, their partnership is hardly the ideal match.

'JP likes to do things by the book but Ruby gets special treatment from her uncle,' says Shyko.

2 SOCIAL-MEDIA QUEEN

Ruby's more worried about catching up with her best mates than catching bad guys.

'She's going to be lots of fun,' says Shyko. 'Ruby's an island girl from the Instagram generation; this place is her playground.'

Such a gem: Rookie Ruby with her uncle and Jack

‘We were crying our eyes out!’

The Durrells' Josh O'Connor on his demanding role in Les Misérables...

DRAMA

Les Misérables

SUNDAY / BBC1 / 9PM

If you remember seeing Michael Ball playing student revolutionary Marius in the West End stage production of Les Misérables, or Eddie Redmayne singing Empty Chairs at Empty Tables in the movie, the BBC1 adaptation of Victor Hugo's 1862 novel might have thrown you. After all, Marius entered in episode one as a small boy!

Last time we saw him, Marius was being poisoned against his father by his belligerent grandad (David Bradley). But now he's grown up and is a law student with a mind of his own – played by The Durrells favourite Josh O'Connor.

As he begins to understand that his dad was a war hero, not a traitor, Marius falls out with his grandfather and goes to live in a squalid part of Paris, in the same neighbourhood as the relocated innkeepers, the scheming Thénardiens (Olivia Colman and Adeel Akhtar).

TV Times caught up with Josh, 28 – who will make his debut as Prince Charles in series three of Netflix hit The Crown later this year – on set in Brussels to chat about this dream role and why his mum will inevitably be disappointed in his performance...

We hear you've wanted to play this role for some time...

Yes, my first ever audition after drama school was to play Marius in the [2012] film. They chose Eddie Redmayne in the end, but I got this one – hopefully nobody will compare me to him. Although my mum has already said, 'Oh, but that Eddie Redmayne is so beautiful in the film,' so she's probably not going to like my performance! This is a very fresh approach to the story... The musical has to cram a lot into a short space of time, but there's so much in the novel. Marius is complex – he comes from a very well-to-do background, but then he turns into a socialist and fights for the people.

We see him meet Cosette [Ellie Bamber] this week. What can you tell us about their relationship?

He falls madly in love with Cosette, but then there's a beautiful relationship with Éponine [the Thénardiens' daughter] that creeps up on him, too. It's a love triangle, but his love for Éponine is more like a sibling.

Marius becomes a big part of the student uprising, joining the revolution against the establishment. Were those scenes fun to film?

Yes, we built a barricade in an actual street; it felt so rough and ready. It wasn't really a set, it was a proper barricade – we climbed over it with guns and it was pretty exciting.

Tell us about the moment Dominic West [who plays Jean Valjean] had to carry you over his shoulder...

Those were brilliant scenes... for me! I walked into rehearsals and Dom went pale as he realised I was a 6ft 2in man he had to drag around – that's not just a turn of phrase, he went white!

How emotionally demanding did you find this job?

There have been a hell of a lot of tears – it's so sad. It's a novel about an over-arching social injustice with these beautiful characters and meaningful stories that will continue to live on because they will always be relevant. It's no wonder we were crying our eyes out. I definitely couldn't wait to get back to filming The Durrells in Corfu!

Have you or a loved one ever suffered from pressure sores?

You could be entitled to compensation for the pain and suffering caused

For anyone in hospital or nursing care, pressure sores are an ever-present danger.

If you or a loved one have suffered from pressure sores, the memories will be lasting. But there could have been no need for you to undergo such anguish.

Just one of those things?

The sad fact is that, in a huge number of cases, the quality of assessment and care is far below what it should be.

Your right to proper care

If you have developed sores and suffered as a result of a substandard level of care, you are perfectly entitled to compensation for your unnecessary pain and suffering. And that is where we can help.

Your right to consider compensation

Significant awards of damages have already been made to pressure sore victims. Those awards have even extended to the families of loved ones who have died, and suffered pressure sores in the very late stages of life.

Contact us for FREE help and advice

If you or a loved one – an elderly relative, perhaps – have suffered from pressure sores in the last 30 months, we urge you to seek legal advice as soon as possible.

We are specialists in this field, and we're happy to chat through your experience and your concerns. There is no obligation, and your discussion will be absolutely free.

Examples of our settlements:

We obtained £42,400 compensation for a lady who developed a pressure sore having been given an epidural during childbirth. She had been unable to move for a few hours as a result of the injection and developed a pressure sore to her sacrum.

£55,000 compensation for an elderly lady who developed a pressure sore to her leg whilst in hospital.

£9,000 for a gentleman who developed a pressure sore to his heel whilst recuperating in hospital from heart bypass surgery.

'I love the drama!'

Dermot O'Leary on the exciting addition to this year's NTAs and his predictions...

LIVE AWARDS

National Television Awards

TUESDAY / ITV / 7.30PM

It's one of the glitziest evenings in the telly calendar, and as the stars prepare to walk the red carpet at London's O2 for this year's National Television Awards, host Dermot O'Leary can't hide his enthusiasm!

'I love the drama!' says Dermot, 45, who's every bit as down-to-earth in real life as he is on screen.

'I'm so busy hosting that I can only remember flashes afterwards. It takes me about two days to work out who's actually won what!'

Adding an extra helping of excitement to the proceedings

this year is a fresh category – New Drama – and Dermot couldn't be more thrilled about it.

'I look forward to the drama categories because they're what I watch the most of at home,' he says.

'I absolutely loved Bodyguard and Killing Eve, which have both been shortlisted for the new award – they were extraordinary.

'My wife Dee and I were very smug because we got into Killing Eve early and I was swanning around the Radio 2 office telling everyone they should watch it.

'I can't wait to meet its star Jodie Comer – although I imagine the entire O2 wants to meet Jodie!'

DERMOT PREDICTS

Our host on this year's contenders...

HOLLY V ANT & DEC

Holly Willoughby replaced Ant McPartlin as co-host of I'm a Celebrity with Declan Donnelly, but now she's vying against the duo, plus Phillip Schofield, Graham Norton and Bradley Walsh, for TV Presenter. 'Holly deserves it,' says Dermot.

JODIE V JODIE

Doctor Who's Jodie Whittaker faces Killing Eve's Jodie Comer for Drama Performance.

'This is tough,' says Dermot. 'Jodie C was great in Killing Eve but I'm mates with Jodie W!'

Michelle Keegan (Our Girl), Richard Madden (Bodyguard) and Cillian Murphy (Peaky Blinders) are also in the mix.

LOVE ISLAND V MRS BROWN

Love Island, All Round to Mrs Brown's, I'm a Celebrity, The Graham Norton Show and Ant & Dec's Saturday Night Takeaway are in the running for the Entertainment Award. 'Love Island is Big Brother for this generation,' says Dermot.

EMMERDALE V CORRIE

Emmerdale has won the Serial Drama gong two years in a row, but can it beat Corrie, EastEnders and Hollyoaks once more?

'After another great year, I wouldn't be surprised if it wins again,' says Dermot.

BODYGUARD V KILLING EVE

Bodyguard, Killing Eve, The Cry, A Discovery of Witches and Girlfriends are up for New Drama. 'It's hard to see past Bodyguard and Killing Eve,' says Dermot. 'Bodyguard' had everything thrown at it; Killing Eve was so dark. I loved both.'

'My culinary homecoming'

Ainsley Harriott on going back to his roots to explore the best of Caribbean cuisine...

NEW COOKERY

Ainsley's Caribbean Kitchen

SUNDAY / ITV / 11.30AM (WALES, THURSDAY, 10.45PM)

If anyone is up to the job of chasing away our January blues, it's the ever-cheery TV chef Ainsley Harriott.

This week, we follow Ainsley as he tours the Caribbean, meeting locals, barbecuing lime prawns on the beach and generally bringing sunshine to our lives in his new ITV series, Ainsley's Caribbean Kitchen.

'It's a tough job, but someone's got to do it,' chuckles Ainsley, 61, when TV Times meets him for an exclusive interview. 'My parents were born in Jamaica, so this felt like a culinary homecoming. It's the journey I've wanted to make ever since I started cooking as a youngster with my mum in the kitchen, at the age of 11.'

The show sees Ainsley – whose TV career began in the 1990s as resident chef on Good Morning with Anne and Nick before he went on to present the much-loved Ready, Steady, Cook – delve into the sights, smells and flavours of the West Indies. Here, he reveals what's on the menu...

Why did you want to explore the Caribbean, Ainsley?

As we get older, I think we want to understand where we came from, so we can understand ourselves better. I was born in England and call it home, but I feel a connection with the Caribbean – it's got soul. With this series I wanted to explore remote spots, meet locals impassioned about food and really get under the skin of the place.

And do you?

Not half! I visit Jamaica, Tobago, Trinidad, Barbados, Grenada, Saint Lucia, Dominica, Antigua and Barbuda, and found they couldn't be more different. People think of the Caribbean as 'one' place, but each island has a rhythm, attitude and culinary influence of its own. The vibrant energy of Trinidad is so different to the tranquillity of Dominica. I'm looking forward to showing viewers there's so much more to the Caribbean than sun, sea and jerk chicken!

In Sunday's first episode, you visit Jamaica. What do you get up to?

We start in the bustling capital, Kingston, where my late parents were born and raised until they moved to England in the early 1950s. It was lovely seeing the school my mother went to and meeting stallholders at Coronation Market, who have been working there for 60 years. The fresh produce is incredible – yams are a Jamaican staple, and I cook up a mean griddled yam with garlic, chilli and mint. I also found guineps, which are similar to lychees, and I haven't tasted them since I was eight years old. My grandparents had a guinep tree, and biting into one brought the memories flooding back.

You also embrace some Rastafarian cooking...

Rastafarian principles focus on 'clean' eating, which means plant-based foods, no meat – and only produce they've grown on their farm. I still dream of the ackeestuffed ravioli that Rasta Chris and his wife, Lisa, cooked for me. Filming was a hoot that day. The Caribbean weather decided to show its torrential side, and we had to abandon the van and carry our equipment down the hill to the farm, as it was too slippery. Rasta Chris was waiting with shots of rum and insisted we drank them to stave off catching colds. The crew walked around smelling of rum all day... It worked, though!

What was your favourite dish from the series?

Probably the braised oxtail with butter beans in the first episode.

There's a lot of fine dining in the resorts of the Caribbean, but truly great food is cooked in a huge pot over open flames – just how I remember Mum doing it. So I cook up her oxtail recipe on a beach, and I just hope I did her proud – the crew polished it off anyway!

And did you feel drawn to any particular island?

Barbados and Antigua are the perfect places for a holiday, but I prefer Dominica with its black volcanic sand, no traffic lights and slower pace of life. I cooked titiwi [tiny fish found in the rivers of Dominica] with plantain by a 600-year-old tree – the very tree where tribal people welcomed Christopher Columbus to the island in the 15th Century! Other highlights were the 'bake and shark' experience in Maracas Bay in Trinidad, where you eat a fish burger basically, in a sweet bread bun with hot pepper sauce.

I smelled the famous nutmeg in the air of Grenada, played steel drums in Antigua... I could go on!

Talking of steel drums, we love the show's theme tune. Did you have something to do with it?

It's me! It's from the early 1990s, when I used to supplement my cooking income by singing. A mate and I travelled around Europe in our teens, busking in squares and earning money to spend in fabulous restaurants. A few years later, I formed The Calypso Twins with another pal, and to help pay my mortgage I'd cook all day and busk in London's Covent Garden in the evening. We made a record called World Party and the B-side was called Cobbler's Calypso, which I rejigged for this series, calling it Kitchen Calypso. My dad came to England after winning a scholarship to the Royal College of Music, and I've got that side of him. My mum gave me a love of food. Marinating meat all day, and making miniature pasties with saltfish inside, was her way of showing love, so no wonder singing and cooking are in my veins!

Any New Year resolutions?

I want to see more live music. All the glorious singing I heard making this series has reignited my passion for live music. I also hope I get to visit more of the Caribbean. If viewers like this series, I've got Haiti, Puerto Rico, St Nevis and Guadeloupe in my sights – so fingers crossed!

Troubled couple: Sarah and Gary

Playing with fire: Sarah and Adam get cosy

Will Sarah cheat?

She flirts with Adam, as her relationship with Gary hits the rocks

When Audrey moves into the Platt house due to her dry rot problem being worse than she originally thought, Sarah and Gary are less than impressed to find themselves sleeping on blow-up mattresses in the living room.

But when Nicola arrives in Weatherfield with little baby Zack, it soon becomes clear that camping in the front room is the least of Sarah's worries.

'Sarah doesn't have a problem with Nicola,' says actress Tina O'Brien, who plays her, 'but she's not impressed when she sees the designer clothes that Gary's bought for Zack, while they're having to sleep on the floor!'

Knowing Sarah's fed up, Gary makes it his mission to find a job.

But when she learns he's talked to his mate Joe, she hits the roof.

'Gary nearly got himself killed the last time he worked for Joe,' explains Tina. 'He really wants to provide for his family, but as Gary talks about working in Qatar, she absolutely loses it.'

Drowning her sorrows, Sarah's desperate to forget her family woes. And when Adam Barlow offers her a nightcap at his place, she doesn't hesitate to say yes...

Tina says: 'He's a good-looking guy and, once they're at the flat, they start flirting and Adam goes in for a kiss. Sarah's found herself in a tricky situation to say the least!'

When Seb sees Sarah leaving Adam's flat, he assumes that the solicitor has been hassling her, and gives him a shove... only to be rewarded with a punch in the face. As Sarah takes Seb home to tend to his wounds, she's desperate to keep Gary in the dark about Adam, and lies that Seb was attacked by a stranger. But will Seb back her up?

Revelation: Ty meets Evelyn's other grandson

Evelyn's secret

Tyrone's concerned about Evelyn's memory when she fails to show up for bingo and then forgets to collect Ruby from school.

And when she later randomly announces that she's going away for a few days, he decides to follow her.

The mechanic is intrigued when he sees her being let into a house by a man in a wheelchair, and demands to know what's going on. The chap introduces himself as Evelyn's grandson, James, and reveals how Evelyn took him under her wing when his parents died.

Seeing a side to Evelyn that he knew nothing about leaves Ty feeling jealous, and he's left gobsmacked when James then lets slip a big secret about their nan...

Amy drops a bombshell, leaving the McDonalds reeling...

'I'm pregnant!'

Brace yourself for the mother of all showdowns at chez McDonald this week, as 14-year-old Amy tells her family those two little words that they weren't expecting to hear for quite some time – 'I'm pregnant'.

Tracy and Liz are gobsmacked, while Steve goes into protective father mode, demanding to know the identity of the toerag who got his little girl into trouble.

At first, Amy hopes she will be able to sort her 'problem' by taking an abortion pill, leaving no one the wiser. But when she visits the family planning clinic, she is disappointed as the nurse insists that an adult must be involved before they go any further.

Knowing that her parents will hit the roof, Amy decides to confide in Liz instead, and sends her grandmother a text, asking to meet up at the urban garden. There, Amy reveals she's in the family way, and tells Liz she needs her to accompany her to the clinic. But Liz isn't comfortable about going behind Tracy and Steve's backs, and leads the terrified teen home to face the music.

While Tracy remains unusually calm, it's Steve who flies off the handle, demanding to know who the dad is – and desperately wanting to throttle him.

With Amy keeping shtoom, Steve marches over to the corner shop and accuses Dev's lad, Aadi, of sleeping with Amy – not only barking up the wrong tree, but leaving Amy mortified by making her pregnancy public knowledge.

Tracy, meanwhile, tries the softly-softly approach, and it seems to pay off when Amy reveals that she had consensual sex at a Christmas party. But when the teen later has an ultrasound scan, the sonographer reveals that she is already 10 weeks gone.

Realising that Amy's telling porkies, Tracy demands the truth. Her daughter remains frustratingly tight-lipped, so when Steve spots her talking to Simon, he puts two and two together and Tracy then accuses the lad of being the daddy. Simon denies it, but it's clear he's hiding something.

While World War Three continues, Amy turns to Faye for advice, who was just 13 when she gave birth to daughter Miley. As Faye talks about her experience of being a young mum, Amy has a change of heart about her own situation. Will the schoolgirl decide to keep her baby?

Sue Nicholls, better known as hair salon owner Audrey Roberts, has revealed the secret to playing a convincing drunk. 'I've learnt a lot in my long life,' she tells us, 'and you don't play drunk. My actor husband, Mark Eden [who played Corrie's dastardly Alan Bradley from 1986-1989], has always said you should,

Nicked: The police find Cain in The Woolpack

Cain arrested!

The mechanic is nicked for Joe Tate's murder – but who has dobbed him in to the cops?

Having finally told Debbie that he bumped off her fiancé Joe Tate – unaware it's actually Graham Foster who has blood on his hands – Cain Dingle is at rock bottom. He's already lost the love and respect of his daughter, but life for the mechanic is about to get worse, as he's arrested for the businessman's murder...

Revelations: Moira's horrified by Matty's news

At the start of the week, Cain remains in a pit of despair, and Moira isn't around to support him, having walked out on her husband last week when he pinned her against a fridge in a fit of rage.

Knowing what a mess he's in, the other Dingle women draw straws to decide who is going to confront Cain. Charity is the unlucky winner, and heads over to Butlers Farm. The landlady is shocked by the state of the place and tries to reach out to her ex. But just as she thinks she's making progress, Cain goes in for a kiss. As Charity tries to fight him off, Matty arrives on the scene. He captures Cain's clumsy move on his phone, and later shows it to Moira when she returns home.

'It's a bitter pill for Moira to swallow,' says Natalie J Robb, who plays the betrayed farmer. 'But she can find it in her heart to forgive Cain. They're similar in many ways – they both make mistakes, but they're not pre-meditated; it's just both of them lashing out.'

After finding out about Cain's latest stunt, Debbie decides to confide in Faith, flooring her with the revelation that her dad killed Joe. But her granny makes a big blunder and lets the cat out of the bag with Matty, wrongly assuming that he already knows.

As word spreads about Cain's 'deadly' actions, the police then tip up at The Woolpack, and when “Moira throws a look at Debbie, as if to say, ‘I can’t believe that you’ve betrayed him!’”

Cain refuses to accompany them to the station, they arrest him.

'Moira is in shock,' adds Natalie. 'She tries to act like she doesn't know what's happening. She strokes Cain's arm and throws a look at Debbie, as if to say, "I can't believe that you've betrayed him, after everything he's done for you."'

But is it really Debbie who has broken the Dingle code and rattled on one of her own? Or is someone else to blame for Cain's arrest?

The barman's life is in danger when he sleeps rough...

Bob Hope has been struggling to cope ever since he was unceremoniously dumped by Laurel and left with nowhere to go. And things are set to get even worse for the pub barman when he's forced to move out of the B&B and Diane unwittingly takes his last bag of food...

'He's been living on tins of beans and noodles, but when Diane sees them, she assumes they're for the food bank and offers to take them,' explains Tony Audenshaw, who plays Bob. 'He's then forced to go to the food bank to try and get them back.'

'A bloke called Mick, who's living in a homeless shelter, helps him by giving him some food, because Bob isn't registered to receive anything. A new friendship starts between the pair – but it may backfire...'

With no money to rent a flat, Bob asks if he can work the late shift at The Woolpack, so that he can bunk down in the cellar afterwards. But he's almost caught out – first by Chas and Charity, and then later on by Brenda.

Sleeping rough: Bob beds down on a bench after Chas and Charity nearly catch him in the cellar (inset)

Bob's bleak midwinter

'Brenda sees him coming out of the hatch,' explains Tony. 'But he pretends that he's fixing it and she's none the wiser.'

Knowing that it's too risky to spend another night at the pub, Bob asks Brenda if he can borrow her car to move into his 'new flat'.

'Of course there's no new flat – he wants to sleep in her car,' Tony tells us. 'But it only lasts one night, because she asks for the keys back.'

Too ashamed to admit his predicament to anyone who might be able to help, Bob spends the following night sleeping rough on a park bench. But it's bitterly cold, and the next morning he's found by Harriet, blue and seemingly lifeless.

Has Bob's pride cost him his life?

Big news: Victoria calls Ellis in a panic

Is Victoria pregnant?

Exasperated by Ellis and Billy's bickering, Victoria locks them in the Portakabin. But her efforts to heal the brothers' rift backfires when Billy has a panic attack.

Vic soon has bigger worries, though, as she later leaves Ellis a panicked message. Judging by the pregnancy test in her hand, it's obvious why she's so stressed. Are the pair about to become parents?

Is Alfie dead?

Kat's in turmoil when the police turn up with shock news...

Alfie Moon has escaped the grim reaper on more than one occasion. Back in 2014, he rescued Kat from a fire without so much as getting a blister, then in 2016 he was diagnosed with a brain tumour that miraculously disappeared and, more recently, he lived to tell the tale when he was pushed down the stairs by Hayley.

But are his nine lives about to finally run out? It looks that way when the police rock up at the Slaters' with bad news...

Though Kat's estranged hubby is technically well, he has been suffering lately from a severe case of verbal diarrhoea. He's scammed dozens of folk through his business venture, Blue Moon Funerals, which ought to change its tagline to 'the good way to go... bankrupt'. He's also sailed close to the wind by procuring several knock-off items for the Slater house. And now, the chickens are coming home to roost.

'Alfie's lies and wheeler-dealings are finally catching up with him,' says our EastEnders insider. 'He's under constant pressure from his disgruntled clients, and his finances get so bad that the bailiffs come calling.'

Just as Alfie thinks things can't possibly get any worse, Ian withdraws his investment in the business. Kat then adds insult to injury by having a pop at her estranged hubby for failing to stick to his promise about getting the loft kitted out for the boys.

In dire need of cash, Alfie visits Phil Mitchell, and makes him an offer. Our source adds: 'Phil agrees to loan Alfie some money, and Alfie decides to celebrate by arranging a family meal. But later on, Kat gets a text from him, saying he's in trouble.'

The following day, the bailiffs are back at the house, but Kat has bigger things to worry about when the police arrive with grim news. She's further panic-stricken to discover half of a note that Alfie has left – the other bit has been eaten by their son, Ernie. Is Jean's sausage surprise really that bad?

Phil's furious to learn that his neighbour is AWOL, and as Kat explains to her sons that Daddy has gone away for a while, she finally finds the rest of Alfie's note. Will her worst fears be confirmed?

Phil gives Keegan cash – unaware of what the teen intends to buy with it!

It looks like Phil Mitchell's going soft in his autumnal years when he tries to get Louise and Keanu together. Only a few weeks ago, he'd have knocked any fella's block off for coming within spitting distance of his precious daughter.

Initially, Phil tries to keep the pair apart when he sees Louise heading over to the Arches, although that's probably as much to do with the fact that he's up to something dodgy and doesn't want Lou to find out. Earlier, he has tasked Keanu with doing some work on a car, and instructed the lad to keep it on the downlow. Clearly, the motor is hotter than a vindaloo.

Louise is annoyed by her dad's overprotectiveness, and gives him a piece of her mind. Her words prompt Phil to take a good, long look at himself, and he uncharacteristically invites Keanu round for dinner. But his gesture doesn't have the desired outcome as Keanu refuses the offer, insisting that he doesn't want to be the kind of dirty dog who pursues his brother's ex-girlfriend.

It's back to the drawing board for Phil, and he comes up with plan B when he later bumps into Keegan. He asks the teen to give Keanu and Louise his blessing, who agrees to the request in exchange for a wad of cash.

What Phil doesn't realise is that Keegan is in a bad way after getting a reminder of his murdered friend Shakil, and intends to blow the money on drugs.

Has Phil – who was once hooked on crack himself – unwittingly put Keegan on the path to addiction?

Return to form: Mick is feeling positive

New year, new Mick?

Soccer mum, Megan, gives Mick a headache when she turns up to complain that the football team has folded, and also has a pop at his teaching methods when she sees him having a kickabout with young Ollie.

But as Megan hangs around like a bad smell, she ends up doing the landlord a favour. Mick relents and agrees to coach the team again, and with a renewed positivity, he decides to call up kids Johnny and Nancy, having previously been in no mood to talk to them. After a nightmare 2018, is the old Mick on his way back?

In denial: Does Terese still carry a torch for Paul?

NEIGHBOURS

Terese relents and decides to give Leo another chance, only to learn from daughter Piper that it wasn't her toyboy she declared her love for while under anaesthetic – it was Paul! Insisting that she was confused and woozy at the time, Terese brushes Piper's concerns aside and asks Leo to move back in, despite there still being an obvious spark with his dad. Piper warns Paul to back off, but worries her mother is not being honest with herself. Is Terese really over the Robinson rascal?

Also this week, Chloe is angry with Aaron when he invites her ex-girlfriend, Mel, to visit, and there's drama for the Rebecchis when Sonya collapses in pain.

All too much: Tori freaks out as Robbo gets overprotective

HOME & AWAY

Dean's in a dilemma when the PI he hired to look for Colby's missing sister Bella discovers a new lead. The detective reveals that Dean's mum Karen was best mates at school with Colby's mother Michelle and his future stepdad Ross, who abducted Bella and went on the run six years ago. With Karen in a psychiatric unit, the PI can't ask her any questions about Ross, and urges Dean to visit her. Not wanting to get Colby's hopes up, Dean keeps the info from his mate that his mum may be the key to finding Bella...

Elsewhere, pregnant Tori panics when Robbo gets overprotective, while Willow and Justin's relationship is pushed to breaking point.

PREMIERE SCI-FI

THRILLER► Silence is more than golden in this terrific horror thriller directed and co-written by actor John Krasinski. It's a matter of life and death. The setting is a post-apocalyptic near future in which a family strives to stay alive in a world that has been overrun by sightless monsters that hunt by sound. The slightest noise will set them off, which creates moments of fist-biting suspense as parents Evelyn and Lee (played by real-life spouses Emily Blunt and Krasinski) and their children try to evade the giant insect-like creatures besetting their secluded farm in upstate New York. Dir: John Krasinski 2016, 15, 105min

Chris 'Captain Kirk' Pine steps into the shoes of Alec Baldwin, Harrison Ford and Ben Affleck to play quick-witted CIA analyst Jack Ryan in this slick spy adventure, which takes Tom Clancy's patriotic hero back to the start of his career for an undercover mission to Moscow. His task? Stop a vengeful Russian oligarch (Kenneth Branagh, who also directs) from bringing down the US economy. The plot comes complete with some routine car chases and the inevitable ticking-bomb climax, but there's a nerve-shredding assassination attempt on the hero. Pine does an excellent job and gets splendid support from Keira Knightley as his girlfriend and Kevin Costner as his mentor. Dir: Kenneth Branagh 2014, 12, 110min

Get Carter

TCM 11.10pm - 1.30am ★★

Satellite CRIME DRAMA ▶ Cool and stylish, this is one powerful British gangster film that so many try to emulate but just fall far too short. Michael Caine stars as Carter, a London gangster who travels back to his childhood home of Newcastle to find out why his brother died. But once there, he uncovers a den of corruption, pornography and drugs. The dialogue is spot on, the soundtrack hip and Caine is superb. A real classic. Dir: Mike Hodges 1971, 18, 140min

The Peanuts Movie

Laura

BBC2 6.20am - 7.45am ★★

THRILLER ▶ Dana Andrews is the detective trying to fathom the mysterious murder of the beautiful Laura (Gene Tierney) while Clifton Webb grabbed an Oscar nomination for his sensational portrait of the caustic radio star in love with the victim. A dark 40s thriller dominated by its haunting theme music and moody black-and-white photography. Dir: Otto Preminger 1944, PG, 85min

ITV 2.15pm - 4.30pm ★★

ADVENTURE ▶ The first of Ian Fleming's books to be adapted for the screen is a slick exercise in how to create an iconic film franchise. The fast cars, the sardonic humour, the deadly action, the exotic locations (namely Jamaica), Joseph Wiseman's megalomaniac villain, Sean Connery's handsome Bond and Ursula Andress's bikini-clad Bond girl all help to kick-start the series in style. Dir: Terence Young 1962, PG, 135min

Charlie Day and Jennifer Aniston in Horrible Bosses 2

Tangled

C4 4.30pm - 6.30pm ★★★★★
 ● See Our Picks of the Week, p30

Horrible Bosses 2

Channel 5 9.00pm - 11.10pm ★★
PREMIERE COMEDY► Bungling friends Jason Bateman, Charlie Day and Jason Sudeikis are back for a redundant sequel to 2011's hit comedy that finds them plotting revenge on Christoph Waltz's unscrupulous businessman by kidnapping his smarmy son (Chris Pine). This time, though, the story is flimsier and the laughs skimpier, with returning co-stars Jennifer Aniston and Jamie Foxx a lot less fun. But Pine has a blast as the trio's insufferably smug would-be victim.

COMEDY► Brace yourselves for another bout of boorish middle-aged antics: Adam Sandler and cronies Kevin James, Chris Rock and David Spade are back for a tiresome sequel to 2010's popular comedy. The early sight of a deer urinating over Sandler's character as he lies in bed gives an idea of what's in store as the quartet of chums get into jams with their wives (including Salma Hayek and Maria Bello) and clash with local frat boys (including Twilight's Taylor Lautner). Like Crazy

C4 11.55pm - 1.30am ★★★★★
ROMANCE► A big hit at the 2011 Sundance Film Festival, where it won prizes for best film and best actress, this bittersweet romance is a grown-up movie about young love. Felicity Jones and Anton Yelchin star as students who become stranded on opposite sides of the Atlantic after her visa expires. Improvising much of their dialogue, Jones and Yelchin deliver appealing performances, while the darting hand-held camera footage adds to the film's intimate feel. Dir: Drake Doremus 2011, 12, 95min

THRILLER► Claire Foy ditches the Queen's cut-class accent to play a paranoid US businesswoman who winds up involuntarily committed to a psychiatric institution after seeking help for the stress of coping with a persistent stalker. Director Steven Soderbergh shot this psychological suspense thriller entirely on iPhones, which gives the action a scuzzy look that's perfect for a down-and-dirty B-movie tale that will really give you the creeps. COMEDY THRILLER► An offbeat crime comedy about a pair of mismatched hitmen with a compelling bittersweet tone. Brendan Gleeson, as the cultivated Ken, and Colin Farrell, as the dim Ray, are the killers exiled to the picturesque Belgian town to await further instructions from their vile boss (Ralph Fiennes). The intricate verbal interplay between the characters resonates most strongly, revealing an immense sadness behind their hilarious bickering.

SPY DRAMA ▶ John le Carré's classic novel becomes a feature film – and the result is a clever, fiendishly gripping thriller. In the lead role, Gary Oldman is superb as Cold War spy hunter George Smiley on the hunt for a Soviet mole at the heart of the British intelligence service in 1973. Is the mole Percy Alleline (Toby Jones), Colin Firth's charming Bill Haydon, or Roy Bland (Ciarán Hinds)? With none of the macho action of a typical spy thriller, this is still as tense as any Bond escapade.

Chris Pine as a young Jack Ryan

Jack Ryan: Shadow Recruit

● FILM / 9pm / C4

PREMIERE Before John Krasinski would play Tom Clancy's CIA

operative on TV, Shadow Recruit sees Chris Pine as Jack Ryan, the economics genius and military hero who becomes a spy in the wake of 9/11. It's an 'origin story', directed efficiently by Kenneth Branagh, who also has a lot of fun playing a cheesy boo-hiss villain plotting to destroy the world economy. Keira Knightley and Kevin Costner add some sparkle to a plot that needs it – we have seen this story many times before – but Pine is always a likeable screen presence and brings loads of charm to a film that's about a third James Bond, a third Jason Bourne and a third John le Carré. That's certainly value for money. ★★★ SM

Ainsley's all smiles in the isles

Ainsley's Caribbean Kitchen

● COOKERY / 11.30am (Wales, Thursday) / ITV

NEW Ainsley Harriott is on top form in this latest culinary offering, which sees the ever-chirpy chef island-hopping around the Caribbean. Kicking off in his parents' birthplace of Kingston, Jamaica, the former Ready Steady Cook host salivates over the freshest of yams at a busy market, survives a tropical rainstorm while learning about Rastafarian fare and visits British chef Tim Kensett at Ian Fleming's former home, now a luxury hotel. Griddled yams and lime prawns, oxtail with butter beans, and orange and cardamom martinis are on the menu in a series destined to chase away the Winter blues. Also starting today is Parveen's Indian Kitchen (9.30am). ★★ ★ RF

HUDDERSFIELD TOWN V MANCHESTER CITY

Premier League

● FOOTBALL / 12.30pm / Sky Sports Premier League

LIVE City put their title challenge back on track with the recent victory over Liverpool, but Pep Guardiola's side can't afford any more slip-ups. Sergio Agüero has scored six in his last two games against the Terriers, including a hat-trick in the 6-1 demolition job at the Etihad in August. This match (k-o 1.30pm) is followed by Fulham v Spurs (k-o 4pm) with Harry Kane looking to continue his fine form, including a hat-trick on his only previous trip to Craven Cottage. ★★ ★ RMC

Monica and Bill

The Clinton Affair

● FACTUAL / 9pm / More4

NEW It was deemed the biggest political scandal of a generation. Now, to coincide with the 20th anniversary of Bill Clinton's impeachment and trial, this series chronicles the events and their impact. With interviews with those involved, including Monica Lewinsky, this is now highly pertinent following the rise of the #MeToo movement. ★★ ★ LP

Vera is on the hunt for a drugs kingpin

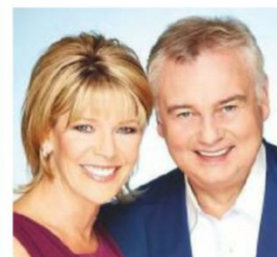

Vera

● DRAMA / 8.10pm / ITV

Vera finds herself at risk from a 'county lines' drug gang this week when her trusty Land Rover is violently driven off the road and she ends up in a ditch, bruised and shaken. The warning shot doesn't put Vera off hunting for the vicious killer of a teenage drug runner, however, and she's soon donning her floppy hat again to sniff out the kingpin she believes committed the murder. Her search puts her up against retired drug dealer Tony Briggs (Mark Addy) and a string of addicts too scared to grass on Mr Big. But as the team get closer to the truth, has Vera been looking in the wrong place all along? ★★ ★ HD

Ruth and Eamonn

This Morning – on Sunday

● FACTUAL / 10.30am / ITV

NEW If you're dying to know what Phillip and Holly have been up to all week, this new catch-up edition is for you. Eamonn Holmes and Ruth Langford present all the choice cuts – interviews, reviews, recipes and advice – of the weekday show, with a few extra bits on top. As Ruth says, 'Stay in your pyjamas, put your feet up and enjoy!' ★★ ★ SM

Will hoarder Clarice open up to Lucille?

Call the Midwife

Social issues continue to challenge the Poplar midwives

● DRAMA / 8pm / BBC1

Leonie Elliott is on compelling form as Lucille goes above and beyond to help reclusive pensioner Clarice Milgrove (a heart-rending performance from One Foot in the Grave's Annette Crosbie). Although Clarice is fiercely independent, it soon emerges that she is a hoarder and is finding it hard to cope at home... Meanwhile, Trixie (Helen George) and Sister Hilda help pregnant Flora Aidoo (Jessica Kennedy), who's suffering from anaemia and has newly arrived from Ghana. But as further concerns come to light following the birth, can they pinpoint what might be blighting Flora and her family? Elsewhere, political fever runs through Poplar as Vi stands for election to the local council. ★★★★★ cc

Going for gold: Gemma and Matt

Dancing on Ice

● ENTERTAINMENT / 6pm / ITV

Following last week's first elimination, all 11 remaining skaters take to the ice. Former Strictly pro James Jordan has already given us one of the best performances we've seen in the history of Dancing on Ice – and that was in Week One! Grease legend Didi Conn is a favourite, too, and, after channelling her inner Beyoncé, we can't wait to see what TOWIE's Gemma Collins – AKA The GC – has got up her sleeve next! ★★★★★ VW

Cosette's life continues to be tough

Les Misérables

● DRAMA / 9pm / BBC1

From the sweet girl who would follow Valjean wherever he went, Cosette is now a frustrated young woman, desperate to get out into the world. Valjean finally relents and moves them out of the convent, which has proved such a refuge, into an apartment in the heart of Paris. But with trouble lurking on every corner, it's not going to be the pleasure cruise Cosette dreamt of. ★★★★★ EB

● DOCUMENTARY / 9pm / BBC4

NEW ...Australia's Maverick Artist.

An enjoyable, informative profile of Sidney Robert Nolan, the innovative modernist painter.

Ainsley Harriott

Ainsley's Caribbean Kitchen (Wales, Thursday), ITV

Ainsley says cooking doesn't have to be a chore if you put a little bit of love in your dishes...

'I don't cook in a vacuum, as it were. I love cooking for people, with people, and laughing. When I worked as a chef I had a happy brigade. I didn't run the kitchen with a rod of iron because I didn't need to. I believe that relaxed happy staff will be reflected in the food.'

Monday Highlights

Adam's not sure if drama therapy's for him

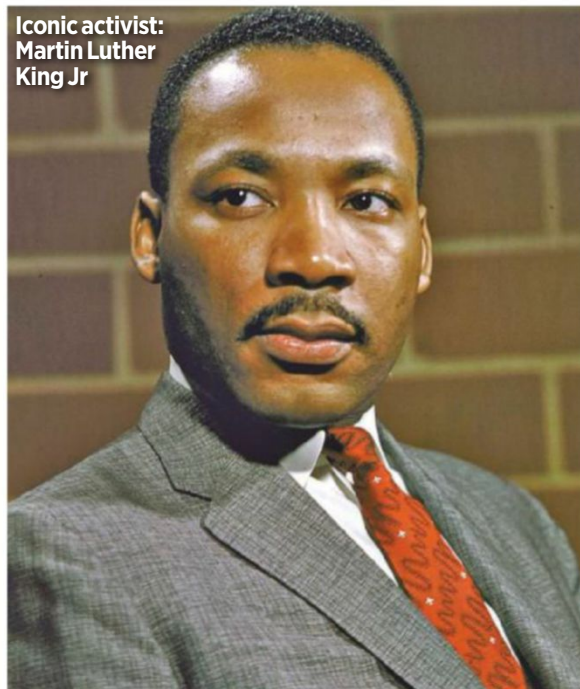

Cold Feet

● DRAMA / 9pm / ITV

Following Karen's pep talk and son Matt's disgust at his behaviour last week, Adam is (slightly reluctantly) attempting to mend his ways by trying a spot of drama therapy. But will he see the light and be able to resurrect his relationship with Matt? Meanwhile, Pete tries to help suicidal Evan, who he saved from drowning last week, David reaches a big decision when he finds it increasingly hard to be a 'kept man' and feels controlled by Nikki, and Karen has grave concerns after she makes an alarming discovery about daughter Ellie's online activities. But all eyes will be on Fay Ripley's stunning performance as Jenny, who is battling to keep the possibility she has cancer a secret when she goes for tests... ★★★★★ CC

Iconic activist: Martin Luther King Jr

Icons

● FACTUAL / 9pm / BBC2

This series is more a celebration of the right stuff than a popularity contest. Which is just as well tonight, as Sanjeev Bhaskar has chosen activists as his iconic group. Putting votes-for-women campaigner Emmeline Pankhurst, civil rights leader Martin Luther King Jr, Indian independence guru Mahatma Gandhi and disability rights champion Helen Keller into any sort of ranking would be a fool's game. Tomorrow, Clare Balding unveils her list of icons from the world of sport. ★★★ SM

Christine's laid up

Two Doors Down

● COMEDY / 10pm (times vary) / BBC2

Tonight's episode of the salty comedy focuses on Christine, who's in hospital for a gall bladder op. Christine isn't exactly overloaded with friends, so it falls to her neighbours to visit and cheer her up. This becomes harder to do once she starts worrying about catching a superbug – though it would be a brave bug that tangled with Christine! ★★★★★ SM

Crossing the wilds of Canada from Vancouver to Toronto

Great Canadian Railway Journeys

● TRAVELOGUE / 6.30pm / BBC2

Michael Portillo boards the Canadian Pacific Railway and learns about its history and the incredible feat of engineering that connected one side of Canada to the other. Stopping short of taking the train from Vancouver to Toronto – the second longest railway journey in the world – he opts for the Skytrain to take in Vancouver's fabulous mountain views. He visits tourist hotspots like Gastown, tries his luck at ice hockey, and then heads to the city's film-making HQ (or 'Hollywood North') where he learns that it was the railway, no less, that sponsored the nation's first films in order to promote settlement. Continues weekdays. ★★★★★ MC

Bus boss Brendan

Celebrity Coach Trip

● REALITY / 7.30pm / E4

As the celebs complete the last leg of their trip, tensions are running high. James Jordan, currently in Dancing on Ice, is not a happy tourist following the vote-off. Who wants to tell him his 2017 Celebrity Big Brother feud with Jedward will reignite when they join tomorrow? And Roxanne Pallett boards Brendan's bus on Wednesday with pal George Sampson. ★★★ ER

Paul Barnes keeps his son's memory alive

A Year of British Murder

Murder's terrible toll – on the victims and their grieving families

● DOCUMENTARY / 9pm / C4

NEW Quamari Serunkuma-Barnes was 15 when he was stabbed to death outside his London school in January 2017. Tragically, that year in Britain, 768 people died as a result of murder or manslaughter, and Quamari's story is one of 13 told in this film revealing the impact such crimes have on victims' families. We see Quamari's parents, Paul and Lillian, in tearful scenes outside court after their son's 15-year-old killer is sentenced. There are other moving moments when Marinela, whose son Razvan was beaten to death, collects his bloodied belongings, and when family and friends of Westminster Bridge terror attack victim Leslie Rhodes unveil a bench in his memory. ★★★★★ HD

Serinda Swan as coroner Jenny Cooper

Coroner

● DRAMA / 9pm / Universal

NEW Serinda Swan stars in a new eight-part series inspired by Matthew Hall's best-selling novels. Jenny Cooper (Swan) has moved to Toronto with her son to work as a coroner following the sudden death of her husband. Jenny quickly begins investigating suspicious cases with cop Donovan 'Mac' McAvoy – starting with a double suicide at a youth detention centre that is not as clear-cut as it first appears... ★★★★★ RMC

New kid on the block: Samantha Bond

Silent Witness

● DRAMA / 9pm / BBC1

Is Nikki pregnant? That's the potential bombshell dropped at the start of this week's two-parter, set in Brighton. When not gazing out to sea and trying to reach boyfriend Matt on the phone, Nikki literally spends a dirty weekend on the south coast searching through rubbish after body parts are found on a landfill site. And Samantha Bond joins the cast as a teacher who has recently joined the police. Continues tomorrow. ★★★★★ IM

ALSO ON...

Holocaust

● FACTUAL / 4.30pm / CBBC

NEW ...A Newsround Special. Holocaust survivor Steven Frank takes his teenage granddaughter on a journey to learn about his experiences.

True Detective

● DRAMA / 9pm / Sky Atlantic

Ten years after the Purcell crimes took place, Hays (Mahershala Ali) finally gets a chance to give his version of events.

Fay Ripley
Cold Feet, ITV

Fay, 52, has written three cookbooks and told TV Times she discourages her children from eating dinner in front of the TV...

'I want applause from my family for a dish I've cooked, so I need their full attention. We might have some popcorn while we're watching The Voice though. We're obsessed with it – we've even bought a chair that swivels to play along!'

Koalas: Cute & Cuddly

● WILDLIFE / 7pm / Channel 5

NEW While the koala does indeed have a very cute appearance and apparently tranquil tree-hugging nature, this little creature actually has a bellow loud enough to be heard a kilometre away and the males will viciously fight to the death to protect their territory. This two-part documentary dispels several untruths about the furry

Australian marsupial, including the myth that it gets high on the eucalyptus leaves it eats. But, unfortunately, as is the case with many wild animals, koala numbers are dwindling – and the footage of a small group of koalas clinging to the trees as construction for a new railway line takes place below them makes for pretty uncomfortable viewing. ★★★ HD

The Passage

● DRAMA / 9pm / FOX

Episode two of the drama based on Justin Cronin's trilogy of novels delves into the story behind Project NOAH's conception, as flashbacks reveal more about Dr Lear's motivation and how he got the charismatic Dr Fanning on board. Meanwhile, FBI agent Brad Wolgast makes a risky move, and the research has an alarming effect on test subject Anthony Carter... If you've read the books, you may be surprised at some of the changes, but it works – and it's shaping up to be quite a ride. ★★★ EP

Frankie Drake Mysteries

● DRAMA / 9pm / Alibi

NEW Glamorous 1920s fashion and girl power rule as this Canadian period drama, following the adventures of private eye Frankie Drake (Lauren Lee Smith) and her sidekick Trudy (Chantel Riley), returns for a second series. When Marian Hartley, an old rival of Frankie's, shows up in Toronto selling some Incan antiquities, Frankie suspects she's running a scam. Frankie is further alarmed when her mother Nora becomes a patron of Marian's work. Meanwhile, at the morgue, pathologist Flo discovers that the body of Jack Parks isn't Parks at all – and he didn't die from a coronary. Can Frankie help identify the man? ★★★ MC

A shock for Frieda

Holby City

● DRAMA / 8pm
(Scot, 10.45pm) / BBC1

Frieda has a blast from the past this week when old flame Roman turns up at the hospital with a banner reading: 'Frieda, talk to me.' Despite this love declaration, Frieda won't listen, until Roman reveals he's been working for a violent gang and wants to shop them to the police. But his problems only get worse when he collapses and needs urgent surgery. Will Frieda get to tell him how she really feels? ★★★ VW

The great and the good of TV gather for the annual gongs

● AWARDS / 7.30pm / ITV

LIVE Let battle commence as stars of the small screen gather under the roof of London's O2 in their red-carpet finery for one of the biggest nights of the TV year, with Dermot O'Leary, who's notched up 10 years as host, overseeing proceedings. Among the hopefuls are Killing Eve star Jodie Comer and Doctor Who's Jodie Whittaker, who go head to head for best Drama Performance, and Holly Willoughby facing Ant and Dec in the best TV Presenter category. Can Emmerdale scoop the gong for best Serial Drama for the third year in a row, and could this be Love Island's year? With votes being cast by viewers, frankly it's all up for grabs! ★★★★★ TL

Castle on the hill
in Warkworth

Pubs, Ponds & Power

● FACTUAL / 7.30pm / BBC4

NEW Presenter Ben Robinson reveals the surprising history of some of Britain's oldest villages in this new series. His first destination is Warkworth in Northumberland, built by the French after the Norman invasion of 1066. The picture-postcard town, reveals Ben, was cunningly planned with a castle on the hill and an imposing church, strategic ways the invaders could try to control the feisty locals. Continues tomorrow. ★★ ★ JL

Ben learns about Judith's
solitary life

New Lives in the Wild

● FACTUAL / 9pm / Channel 5

Ben Fogle is closer to home this week, on Ireland's rugged west coast, to meet extraordinary octogenarian Judith. She's blissfully happy in her isolated hillside hideaway – a cottage and garden, which she created with her late husband over 40 years ago. With no running water or electricity, Judith lives by candlelight, crafting, gardening and reading. Ben is impressed by this formidable lady, who's intent on keeping her life on the wild side. ★★ ★ ★ JL

Catastrophe

● COMEDY / 10pm / C4

Hilarity ensues when Sharon and Rob decide it's time to embark on a health kick. Meanwhile, Fran rekindles an old relationship, and Dave embraces country living.

Silent Witness

● DRAMA / 9pm / BBC1

After the gruesome discovery in Brighton, there are lots of loose ends to be tied up in the conclusion to this week's case – and Nikki still needs to talk to Matt...

Samantha Bond

Silent Witness, BBC1

● Samantha, 57, played Miss Moneypenny in four of the James Bond films alongside Pierce Brosnan. She is the only Moneypenny to have ever kissed 007, albeit in a dream sequence.

● Before taking part in BBC1's The Great Sport Relief Bake off in 2014, London-born Samantha said, 'My aim is to walk out the tent with as little humiliation as possible.'

● In 2015, Samantha quit her role as Lady Rosamund in Downton Abbey because she was 'fed up of popping in and out' of the series.

Sam goes undercover to discuss a deal

Cleaning Up

● DRAMA / 9pm / ITV

Sam (Sheridan Smith) and her cleaning colleagues are in the spotlight this week, as head of compliance Frances Howard (Prey's Rosie Cavaliero) wants to know who planted the listening device in the office of dodgy trader Blake (Doctor Who's Ben Bailey Smith). But that minor complication is not going to scupper Sam's money-making scheme – she makes contact with one of Blake's business associates, known as 'Swanny' (Lloyd Owen), disguising herself as Blake's silent partner, 'Nancy'. As Sam agrees to a meeting with Swanny to discuss a property deal, is she getting in too deep? And there's trouble at home, too. Keep watching to the very end of the episode for a twist that you won't see coming... ★★★★★ VW

Scoring machine: Gabriel Jesus

BURTON ALBION V MANCHESTER CITY

Carabao Cup

● FOOTBALL / 7.30pm / Sky Sports Football

LIVE Tonight's clash couldn't be more of a formality (k-o 7.45pm), but it should still prove to be an entertaining 90 minutes. Man City travel to League One Burton Albion's Pirelli Stadium with a 9-0 advantage from the first leg after thrashing Nigel Clough's team, with Brazilian Gabriel Jesus scoring four goals. It was the first time in 31 years that City had scored more than eight goals in a single match. Burton keeper Bradley Collins looks set for another torrid evening... ★★★★★ RMC

Dirty Tricks

● ENTERTAINMENT / 9pm / 5Star

NEW Magician and online sensation

Ryan Tricks gets his first TV series and takes his unique style of magic to Notting Hill Carnival, exposing just how vulnerable our belongings can be in public places. Think magic show crossed with public information film. He learnt his skills from hackers and conmen, so he's more than qualified to show us how to be more street smart. ★★★★★ LP

England skipper Joe Root

WEST INDIES V ENGLAND

Test Cricket

● CRICKET / 1pm / Sky Sports Cricket

LIVE England facing the West Indies is always a mouth-watering prospect for any cricket fan and Joe Root's men will go into the three-Test series with confidence after thrashing Sri Lanka recently. England have named an unchanged squad and will rightly fancy their chances as they head into the first Test at the Kensington

Oval in Barbados. Thousands of travelling England fans will cheer them on, but before supporters get too confident it's worth noting that England have won just one Test series in the West Indies since 1968. This Test series will be followed by five one-day internationals and three Twenty20s. ★★★★★ RMC

Horror in the dark

Don't Breathe

● FILM / 9pm / Film4

PREMIERE Three Detroit pals think they've found an easy way to make a buck in this tense horror: raid the house of a local blind man and steal his fortune. Unfortunately for them, their target is a Gulf War veteran and has all sorts of dark business going on, and the trio are soon in big trouble. A gruesome shocker with Avatar's Stephen Lang a standout as the grizzled 'victim'. ★★★★★ SM

Tudor forebears

The EastEnders star
has fun delving into his regal ancestry

● FACTUAL / 9pm (times vary) /
BBC1

NEW Who Do You Think You Are? has been going for quite a few years now, but the moment Danny Dyer discovered he was descended from 14th-century King of England Edward III will live long in the memory. Yet that was just the start of the story and in this two-part series, the EastEnders star traces his bloodline even further back, to William the Conqueror and beyond, while sampling the lives of his famous forebears. This week Danny learns to scrap like a Viking, hunt like a Norman and joust like a knight of the realm, in an irreverent documentary full of cockney rhyming slang and fascinating history. ★★★★★ SMA

finale

Breaking Dad

● TRAVELOGUE / 8pm / ITV

LAST ONE Bradley Walsh and son Barney end their epic adventure tonight in New Orleans.

They relax into life Big Easy-style with a steamboat trip on the Mississippi, before livening things up at a carnival parade in the famous French Quarter. While Bradley may not have enjoyed everything Barney made him do along the way, the pair are closer than ever, with Brad sweetly describing the trip as 'the highlight of my life.' ★★ ★ JL

Dr Kevin Fong

questions

We Need to Talk About Death

● DOCUMENTARY / 9pm / BBC2

NEW Despite some of the best treatments available, our lives don't always end the way we want them to. In this thought-provoking film, Dr Kevin Fong thinks it's time to look at the way we die and asks if medicine always improves people's final days. He meets inspirational patients and medical staff facing this dilemma. ★★ ★ ★ LP

ALSO ON...

Fresh Start

● COOKERY / 8pm / BBC2

Michelin-starred chef Tom Kerridge continues his challenge by focusing on ways families can incorporate more healthy ingredients into meals.

Magnum P.I.

● DRAMA / 9pm /
Sky One

The reboot of the classic 1980s series continues. Tonight, Magnum (Jay Hernandez) comes to the aid of a fisherman who's had a valuable tuna stolen – but is there more to the story?

Danny Dyer

Danny Dyer's Right Royal Family, BBC1

● Danny met his wife Joanne when they were both 14 years old and the pair had their first daughter Dani in 1996. Dani went on to win last year's series of ITV2's Love Island.

● Danny believes in aliens and fronted the 2010 BBC documentary I Believe In UFOs.

● Danny has always been a fan of EastEnders, despite turning down a role in the soap in the past, and once revealed that his favourite character ever was Tanya Cross (Jo Joyner).

Thursday Highlights

Lucy tries out a Gone with the Wind look

American History's Biggest Fibs

● DOCUMENTARY / 9pm / BBC4

This fascinating series continues with irrepressibly enthusiastic historian Lucy Worsley tackling one of the most controversial epochs in American history – the 1861 Civil War and its aftermath. Was it really a heroic battle to free the slaves of the southern states, or was there actually something more going on? History has painted President Abraham

Lincoln as 'The Great Emancipator', as he led the 19 northern states to victory against the 11 pro-slavery southern Confederate states. But despite the victory, the freedom granted to the former slaves was so limited and flawed that the issue of race relations has remained a divisive issue, from the 1964 Civil Rights Movement right up to the present day. ★★★★★ JL

Uh oh, Jack's wearing the forensic gloves

Death in Paradise

● DRAMA / 9pm / BBC1

With Florence on a romantic getaway with her new man and scatty Ruby still getting to grips with the basics of policing, we don't hold out much hope for a quick arrest. The team are investigating the death of a TV presenter, who was on the island for an episode of a Judith Chalmers-esque holiday show. There are plenty of motives but, as you might expect, the murder method is another mind-boggler. ★★★★★ EB
● See Shyko Amos interview: page 17

Spurs star Harry Kane

Carabao Cup

● FOOTBALL / 7pm / Sky Sports Football

LIVE Chelsea and Spurs reconvene at Stamford Bridge for the second leg of their semi-final (k-o 7.45pm). Spurs have a 1-0 lead after a close encounter at Wembley two weeks ago, with a Harry Kane penalty between the sides. But the Blues created lots of chances in the first game, and Chelsea boss Maurizio Sarri will have confidence his team can overturn the deficit. ★★★★★ RMC

Sara is down on the farm with the boys

Back in Time for School

● FACTUAL / 8pm / BBC2

The pupils enter the swinging 1960s and experience what life was like at a secondary modern. For pupils who failed the 11+ and didn't get into grammar school, education took a practical turn. While the boys learn bricklaying and then enjoy a rural studies lesson (taught by presenter Sara Cox's farmer dad), the girls are not so impressed by typing and home craft. Although pleased they are actually being trained for a potential job, they are disappointed how limited their career prospects are, with most having to choose between being a secretary or shop assistant. The decade ends with a party to watch Neil Armstrong take one small step for man... ★★★★★ JL

Boss Steve Darnell

Sin City Motors

● FACTUAL / 8pm / Dave

NEW Las Vegas garage owner Steve Darnell and crew are back for a fourth series, turning old rust buckets into rat rods – customised cars and trucks reminiscent of a bygone age (think Mater from Cars). This week's projects are a truck in honour of the men that built the skyscrapers of America, and a 1967 Dodge Coronet. ★★★ LP

The stylish crime thriller returns for a second series

● DRAMA / 9pm / Sky Atlantic

NEW Series one of the quirky revenge thriller signed off with a cliffhanger as Chief of Police Jim Worth (Tim Roth) was apparently gunned down by daughter Anna (Abigail Lawrie) after dispatching his son's killer, Whitey. Given that there's a second series, it's no spoiler to reveal that Jim (and evil alter-ego Jack) has survived – for now. And we already know from Reservoir Dogs that no one does gunshot-wound acting quite like Roth. The stylish opening to the new run reveals the shocking aftermath of the shootout, and follows oil company bigshot Elizabeth (Mad Men's Christina Hendricks) on a roller-coaster couple of days that start with one too many tequilas... ★★★★★ IM

Harlo is a little
American with big ideas

Secret Life of 5 Yr Olds

● FACTUAL / 8pm / C4

An international class of five-year-olds enters the nursery and the world's various cultures are thrown into the spotlight. Harlo is from America and is soon teaching the other boys how to fire a gun properly. He also sings the blues for show and tell, making young Reilly fall head over heels for her American boy. But Harlo isn't impressed by her affections, and breaks her heart when he rips up her love letter. ★★★★★ JL

All in a day's work for consultant obstetrician
Dr Mark Clement-Jones

Hospital

● FACTUAL / 9pm / BBC2

This episode focuses on the Liverpool Women's Hospital. With about 8,000 babies born each year, it is the UK's biggest maternity unit. Baby Violet was just 36 hours old when she was transferred from Worcester. She needs an urgent operation. We also meet patients in the severely over-stretched oncology department, including a mum-of-one who is pregnant again and also battling cancer for the second time. ★★★★★ JL

The Directors

● DOCUMENTARY / 8pm / Sky Arts

Series two continues with a look at David Lean, director of classics including Lawrence of Arabia, Great Expectations, Brief Encounter and Dr Zhivago (which follows at 9pm).

Hunted

● REALITY / 9pm / C4

Best mates Ish and Nate run into a spot of trouble when the Hunters freeze their bank cards, and Royal Marine Matt is desperate to see his family. Will he risk it?

FRIDAY 25 January

Sssshhh, danger...
Emily Blunt stars

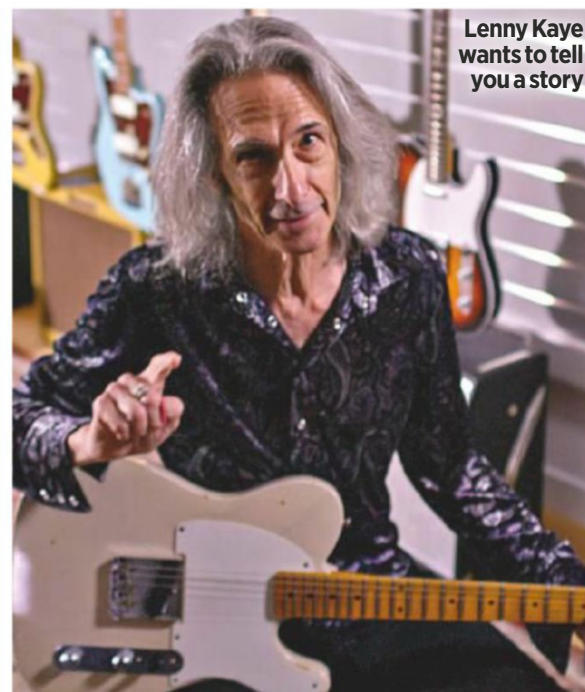

A Quiet Place

● FILM / 8pm / Sky Premiere

PREMIERE A gripping thriller starring real-life husband and wife

John Krasinski (who also directs) and Emily Blunt as Lee and Evelyn Abbott, a couple raising a family off the grid and being menaced by creatures who respond to any noise whatsoever. And so the Abbotts go about their lives in total silence, knowing that even a whisper is likely to mean a grisly death. A film with barely a word said, not much music on the soundtrack either, is setting itself a lot of challenges, but this family's daily living arrangements are fascinating to watch, and there are enough jolts of heart-in-mouth jeopardy and did-not-see-that-coming moments to keep things moving. Best watched in a dark room. ★★★★★ SM

On Guitar...

● DOCUMENTARY / 9pm / BBC4

NEW ...Lenny Kaye! Not content with merely being an awesome guitarist for Patti Smith, Lenny Kaye also proves a great TV presenter with this enjoyable film. Lenny charts the development of the electric guitar sound from Les Paul and Leo Fender's 1940s and 1950s creations, through devices like the Tremelo to today's technology. Thrilling clips and an impressive array of contributors, from Duane Eddy to The Edge, help tell the story – and Lenny's enthusiasm is irresistible. ★★★★★ EP

Jeremy's busy

Grand Tour

● FACTUAL / Amazon Prime Video

If you believe what you read in the papers, Jeremy Clarkson and co are getting top dollar to host this series, so it's only fair they do a couple of extra jobs for Amazon while they're out filming The Grand Tour. In Colombia, the trio are tasked with getting some snaps of animals for the company's new screensaver while also exploring the scenery in cars including a Fiat Panda. ★★★★★ EB

A photo finish for Rob, Usain and Romesh

Rob and Romesh vs Usain Bolt

● FACTUAL / 9pm / Sky One

NEW Friends for over a decade, comedians Rob Beckett and Romesh Ranganathan are travelling the globe to get on each other's nerves and also meet some of their idols. Tonight they go to Jamaica to meet Usain Bolt, the fastest man in the world. They have a few days to acclimatise (or rather, stay in a honeymoon suite and bicker) but cheerful Rob keeps annoying grumpy Romesh by organising activities for them to do that have nothing to do with actually interviewing Usain Bolt. Rob and Romesh do finally meet Usain and have a nice chat, but this is more about two mates having a giggle, usually at each other's expense. ★★★ JL

Dame Judi Dench

The Graham Norton Show

● CHAT SHOW / 10.35pm / BBC1

Judi Dench and Kenneth Branagh hit the sofa to talk about the film All Is True, in which Branagh plays Shakespeare and Dench his wife, Anne Hathaway. Since it's written by Ben Elton, the big question is how similar is it to TV comedy Upstart Crow? Joining them for chat and chuckles is boxing champ Anthony Joshua. ★★★★★ SM

Jane enjoys a Mamma Mia! moment on a Greek isle

All aboard with Jane for some island-hopping in Greece

● TRAVELOGUE / 9pm / Channel 5

NEW Another day, another cruise for the Wakefield wanderer! This time Jane is island-hopping around Greece. In blistering mid-July heat Jane finds a unique way to see the sights of Athens and stay cool – a guided Segway tour! Jane then swaps sightseeing for partying on the lively island of Mykonos. After a night on the tiles, she escapes to the peace of Milos for a quick stop before spending two days on the beautiful but busy isle of Santorini. Here she watches the sun go down, cooks octopus and then heads back on board for some dancing. After a visit to Crete, Jane's final destination is stunning Samos, leaving just enough time to belt out a Mamma Mia!-inspired song (naturally!). ★★★★★ JL

Sean Bean as Jacopo Pazzi

Medici the Magnificent

● DRAMA / Netflix

NEW Sean Bean heads the cast for the second series of this real-life epic tale of power and passion in Renaissance Italy. He plays Jacopo Pazzi, the head of the Pazzi banking family in Florence, who is determined to wrest control of the city from the de Medici family. Following an assassination attempt on Piero de Medici, his son Lorenzo takes over the bank, but the business is in a bad way and Jacopo sees an opportunity... ★★★★★ JE

Geordie and Leonard investigate

Grantchester

● DRAMA / 9pm / ITV

It's a brave new world Geordie finds himself in. First Cathy takes him to get fitted for a fancy new suit, then Geordie finds himself investigating a case that takes him to a gay bar. Luckily, he's got the perfect wingman, and Leonard jumps at the chance to be a detective for the day. The only problem is, he's not quite as good at police work as he thinks he is... hilarity ensues! ★★★★★ EB

Kacey Ainsworth

Grantchester, ITV

Having played Little Mo in EastEnders for six years, Kacey was thrilled to tackle a new role in BBC's adaptation of The Worst Witch in 2017...

'The chance to choose my look as a witch was fantastic. I even had bright orange pointy nails! People get pigeonholed in this industry and can't break the mould. One of the reasons I left EastEnders was I wanted to play other characters.'

Your TV Times

Future classic?

I am convinced that BBC1's The Greatest Dancer is set to become an annual favourite in the mould of Strictly Come Dancing. Fabulous presenters, amazing captains and the fantastic performers all combine to produce a TV masterpiece. Keep it coming, BBC1!

Mr Ian Jack, Hampshire

Top parents

Yet again I watched in awe of the amazing Noel and Sue Radford as they cared for their huge family in C4's extraordinary 21 Kids and Counting. Parenting at its absolute best – what an inspiring couple!

Kath Sharman, West Yorks

TV TURN OFF

Mrs Brown's Boys

I've always been an avid fan of Mrs Brown and her entourage of boys, but I was very disappointed by the Christmas and New Year specials. There seemed to be a lack of spontaneity and none of the festive extras.

Mrs LM Jackson, Blackburn

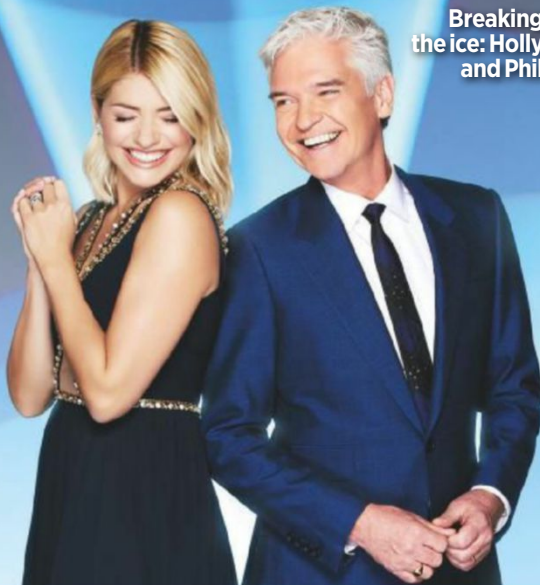

LETTER OF THE WEEK

Brilliant viewing

My Winter favourite, Dancing on Ice, is back on ITV with a good array of stars – my heart goes out to them all, good or not so good. Jason Gardiner does not mince his words, but he certainly makes for brilliant viewing – along with super-skaters Torvill and Dean and the rest of the team. I can't wait to see what they've got in store.

Sylvia Monk, Hampshire

Breaking the ice: Holly and Phil

Challenge Bradley

I found the first episode of ITV's Bradley Walsh & Son: Breaking Dad highly entertaining. Bradley is always game for a laugh, but surely even he didn't expect this travelogue to be as exhausting and demanding as it is – his son Barney challenges him every step of the way!

David Evans, West Midlands

Feast your eyes

I've found the third series of Delicious on Sky One has been as good as ever. The glossy Cornwall-set story about a middle-class dysfunctional family is both intriguing and engaging. More, please!

Nancie Rutherford, Kent

Go Jeremy!

Congratulations to ITV for having the good sense to bring back Who Wants to Be a Millionaire? Host Jeremy Clarkson's dry wit and relaxed style gave the revival a turbo-boost and I'm sure I wasn't alone in really enjoying the whole series. Go, Jeremy! And many thanks, ITV.

Mary Windsor, Notts

Golden Voice

Saturday-night viewing has hit a high with the return of ITV's The Voice UK. The dynamics, banter and respect among the coaches are very special.

Jan Stephenson, Staffs

Turbo-boost: Jeremy

ARIES (21 March-19 April)

Mars, the planet that influences you most, bumps up against Saturn on Monday, meaning you may feel undermined or challenged. But Jupiter comes to the rescue on Friday, boosting you with optimistic energy.
Call... 09058 170 399* Lotto No 17

TAURUS (20 April-20 May)

Fortunate Jupiter sprinkles your life with lucky opportunities this week as he dances with Venus – your planetary boss. Travel and opportunities to make money abound. All extra efforts will be worthwhile.
Call... 09058 170 400* Lotto No 20

GEMINI (21 May-20 June)

Mercury creates friction with Uranus on Wednesday, then leaps into Aquarius on Thursday. It feels like you have a million things to do. But remember, there's only one way to eat an elephant: a chunk at a time!
Call... 09058 170 401* Lotto No 44

CANCER (21 June-22 July)

If you're to end the week feeling satisfied, you're going to have to prioritise. You may want to tackle the enjoyable tasks first, but you're putting off the more important things. Do the hard bit first!
Call... 09058 170 402* Lotto No 32

LEO (23 July-22 August)

It's going to be a memorable week. A lunar eclipse in your sign on Monday acts as a kind of super New Moon, encouraging changes. It's uncomfortable if you're not ready, but change will do you good.
Call... 09058 170 403* Lotto No 14

VIRGO (23 August-22 September)

This week's lunar eclipse falls in the most intuitive area of your horoscope. Instinctively you know what's going on in a tricky situation. Thursday and Friday bring chatty friends who'll make you feel better.
Call... 09058 170 404* Lotto No 22

LIBRA (23 September-23 October)

This week's lunar eclipse influences your social group. Any awkward relationships with friends will suddenly become very obvious. But it's an excellent time to clear the air and have some honest conversations.
Call... 09058 170 405* Lotto No 39

SCORPIO (24 October-22 November)

This week's lunar eclipse is in the family area of your chart, creating some much-needed fresh air. Any ongoing tensions will finally get resolved and you'll suddenly be open to a whole new way of thinking.
Call... 09058 170 406* Lotto No 19

SAGITTARIUS (23 November-21 December)

Venus in your sign has an exceptionally lucky meeting with your ruler, Jupiter, on Tuesday. Jupiter brings fortunate changes, but also overindulgence. Will you encounter a life-changing opportunity or a hangover?
Call... 09058 170 407* Lotto No 8

CAPRICORN (22 December-20 January)

Your daily routine and work habits will be most affected by this week's eclipse. Your place of work or your commute may change, or you may decide to transform your daily habits for a healthier lifestyle.
Call... 09058 170 408* Lotto No 3

AQUARIUS (21 January-18 February)

The Sun enters Aquarius on Sunday and it's time to bask in its warmth and attention. With Mercury, the planet of communication, also in your sign this week, you'll have a whole new framework for life by Friday!
Call... 09058 170 409* Lotto No 20

PISCES (19 February-20 March)

Comparing yourself unfavourably to others – whether it's their looks or successes – won't move you on this week. But the empathetic, artistic and gentle qualities that your friends and family love about you will help.
Call... 09058 170 410* Lotto No 10

*STARLINES cost 80p per minute plus your telephone company's network access charge and last approx 4 mins. Callers must be 18+. You must have the bill payer's permission. Updated every Thursday. SP Spoke: 0333 202 3390.

A sunnier outlook

Heating up: Michelle with co-stars Nick Reding and Peter Polycarpou

Michelle Collins swapped the gloom of Albert Square for sun-kissed Cyprus in the BBC1 drama Sunburn, written by Cold Feet creator Mike Bullen.

Michelle played holiday rep Nicki Matthews, who left England after divorcing her husband. While Michelle was filming the series, her EastEnders character Cindy Beale was killed off-screen, ruling out a return to the soap.

'I can't go back now and that's a bit scary,' Michelle admitted to us. 'But as an actress you've got to take risks.'
